The American Numismatic Association, an educational and nonprofit organization, is the largest and most active numismatic body in the world. It invites and welcomes to membership all worthy persons eleven years of age or over, who have a sincere interest in numismatics, whether they collect coins, paper money, tokens or medals, whether advanced collectors or only those generally interested in the subject without being collectors. The association was founded in 1891, and has about 27,000 members from every state in the Union and many foreign countries. It was chartered for fifty years by Act of Congress May 9, 1912; renewed in perpetuity by Act of Congress April 10, 1962 and is a mutual organization for the benefit of its members.

All Association members, except Associate, receive the official publication, The Numismatist, without cost other than their annual dues. Membership applications should be accompanied by $11.00 to cover admittance fee and the first year's dues. Succeeding annual dues are $6.00. Non-member subscriptions, $7.50 per year or three years for $20.00. Single copy 75¢. For application blanks or other information, write to Executive Director, P. O. Box 2366, Colorado Springs, Colo. 80901.

The Numismatist is an illustrated monthly which has been issued continuously since its founding in 1888, consists of 128 pages or more in each number with subscribers in about sixty countries. Advertising inquiries should be sent to the Advertising Manager. All other matters for possible publication in or concerning The Numismatist are to be forwarded to the Editor. Unsolicited manuscripts, which are sent at the owner's risk, and other correspondence calling for a reply must be accompanied by stamped, self-addressed envelopes.

Opinions expressed in articles published in The Numismatist are those of the authors and do not necessarily represent the views of the American Numismatic Association or the Editor.

THE TAUNTON COPPER MANUFACTURING COMPANY

—by Paul and Bob Carter—

The Wading River, known over the years as the Three Mile or Coweset, crosses Massachusetts State Highway 140 about a mile and a half southeast of Norton Center, on the old Taunton road. At this point, on the left hand side of the road, one can see traces of the old Taunton Copper Manufacturing Company, or better known to townsfolk as Crocker Brothers of Taunton. Technically, this was not correct, for the site is within the boundaries of Norton Center and it was not until 1849 that Crocker Brothers established a branch of their plant in Taunton proper.

According to town records, a mill site was established as early as 1792 when a saw and grist mill were located here. In 1795, five men leased the mill site from Josiah and Elkanah Woodward. This group of businessmen included William Augustus Crocker, along with Samuel Leonard, Seth Smith, Jr., and George and Daniel Gilbert. Plans called for a store along with the mill site. The deed notes a provision for the construction of a trench to operate a slitting mill, for diversion of the river flow, and for a dam "across said river to be raised as high as necessary for use of said mills."

The slitting mill remained in operation until 1824, when it was destroyed by fire. The following year Crocker erected a cupola furnace, a refining furnace, and a building for a rolling mill, on the same site.

Within a year, July 6, 1826, he was joined by his two brothers, Samuel and George, in founding a company to process and manufacture copper. He had previously acquired the rights of former partners.

In 1831, the Crocker brothers, along with new partners, Daniel Brewer and Samuel Crandell, became incorporated as the Taunton Copper Manufacturing Company and the company became known as "Crocker Brothers." It is interesting to note

Editor's note: One of the great sources of material on early American coins has been from the small group of dedicated numismatists comprising the Early American Coppers (EAC) and from the pages of their publication, Penny-Wise. From this group have come the articles on early U. S. large cents from Dr. Warren A. Lapp, Capt. John D. Wright, Paul and Jeffrey Oliphant, and now Paul and Bob Carter.

This article was gleaned from the pages of old deeds and documents in the Office of the Registry of Deeds in Taunton, Mass., and from personal observations of the mill sites, the river and the canal by the authors. This is an edited version of what first appeared in their magazine. — ECR.

The map and plot plan was drawn from the only one now known to be in existence. The original is dated 1850 and probably hung in the offices of Crocker Brothers. 1., 2., and 3. dwelling houses; 4., and 5. dwelling house and barn; 6. barn for mill horses; 7. carpenter shop; 8. rolling mill (12 furnaces, 10 sets of housings and water wheels, two shears, two engine lathes, machine shop, and second shop; 9. planchet mill (two presses and water wheel); 10. brass furnace; 11. store house; 12., 14., and 15. brass furnaces; 13. copper refining furnaces; and 16. railroad connecting mill.

that the company was reported to have capital in excess of $200,000, a tidy sum for the day when a quart of milk cost five cents, a dozen eggs sold for ten cents, and a skilled laborer earned no more than a dollar per day. Craftsmen emigrated from England and a start was made in producing a copper alloy — brass.

Crocker Bros. was a progressive company, not afraid of innovations. In 1835, they dug a canal three-quarters of a mile in length to tap water from the mill pond of Augustus and Allen Lane. This canal produced a head of 20 feet, making it possible to use an overshot waterwheel.* This was a far superior source of power than the undershot or breast wheels common to the area.

When the canal was completed, an additional three acres was leased from Josiah Woodward at a sum of 50 silver dollars per year. On this additional land a new rolling mill was erected. It is interesting to note that the lease specified silver dollars, an example of the trust that people had in paper money at the time.

*Waterwheels were the source of power used to operate the machinery in rolling and stamping mills of the period. The rolling mill used an overshot wheel — where water struck the wheel at the top and flowed over it causing it to turn clockwise. This method exerts power to the axle by velocity and gravity. It is the most efficient type of waterwheel.

A breast wheel, the most common waterwheel in this area because of the shallow rivers, was used to supply power to the planchet presses. Since the head (height of water) is seldom over eight feet, water undershoots the breast wheel on the upstream side about the level of the axle, then flows underneath causing the wheel to turn counterclockwise.

At the same time, the Crockers added condensers to the cupola stacks to trap zinc oxide that escaped as gas, smoke, or ash. These condensers collected as much as $50 a day of this material. The zinc oxide was used as a pigment in paint.

Directly behind the new building on the Woodward lease, the Crockers erected a new building directly over the canal. Here was housed a water-wheel, probably a breast type, and two planchet presses. It was in this small building (see sketch) that copper planchets for United States large cents were produced in compliance with terms of a Mint contract.

Crocker Bros. started as early as 1815 to supply the Mint with copper planchets and furnished a sizeable portion of all the copper used at the Mint for half-cents and large cents until that coinage was ended in 1857.

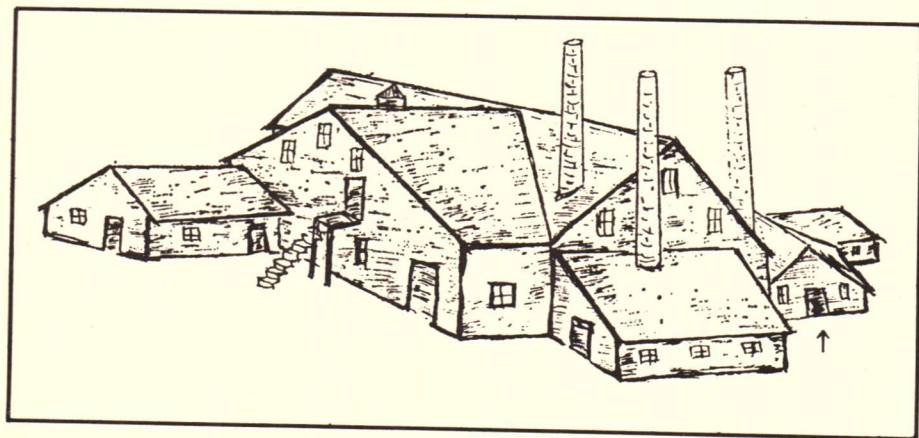

The planchets were produced in a finish state including the raised rims. They were ready for stamping, except for a final scouring at the Mint. Records show that upwards of 60 tons was shipped annually to Philadelphia. This amounted to a return of more than $50,000, which must have been considered a lucrative contract for the period.

The authors had hoped that by thoroughly searching the area, that some unstamped planchets would not be too hard to find, but evidently security was tight, for they have seen but seven such planchets.

Crocker Bros. shipped these planchets to the Mint in kegs, and after the blanks had been stamped into coin, many were shipped back by the Mint to Crocker Bros. for distribution to banks or wherever needed, an unusual practice to say the least. It is easy to see why the term "keg rubbed" is applied to many of the uncirculated large cents when one considers the means of travel and the distances covered by rail and unpaved roads.

Even today some of the stonework of the canal is still standing. The authors have often covered the site on foot and recorded what they have seen with candid camera. A few of the shots are published here, but one must bear in mind that the heavy overgrowth and brush makes clear shots rather impossible. In some places the stone work reaches a height of 10 to 12 feet above the old silt-filled canal waterway. The stone work is plumb and true, having been closely laid to withstand the pressure of the water as it rushed off the wheels.

The masonry is the experienced work of Irish stone masons who came to the Taunton area from Ireland during the great potato famine of the 1830s. Still to be found are some of the native chestnut beams, protruding from the ground, mute evidence of the durability of this wood. Unfortunately, this fine timber is no longer available, as most chestnut trees were destroyed by a blight around the turn of this century. You can also see an old slag head at the river bank still green from the copper not fully extracted from it.

As You Look Back

As one stands on this old mill site today and lets his mind turn back the clock to a century past, he can see the water cascading over the waterwheel and hear the roar of the river as it rushes into the wheel pit.

If his imagination is strong, he can smell the acrid smoke from the cupola furnaces and hear the cacophony of the heavy machinery, and the creak of the heavy ore wagons drawn by straining horses. Surely he can appreciate the sweat and heat that men of that era, working with tools and a form of power now long obsolete, had to exert in producing something so vital to the new nation.

The old coppers have long since passed from the scene, having been replaced with a more acceptable, smaller, lighter, and easier handled cent. True they do not purchase as much today, but the coppers served an important purpose and they have survived in substantial numbers to become one of the most cherished coins for the numismatists of the entire U. S. series of coins. They have been thoroughly studied, researched Dead trees! Not quite — here are two of the beams from the main mill. They are of chestnut and from 18 to 24" square. The railroad crossed the river in line with the shadows in the foreground.

The planchet mill stood at this site. The stone work is only a few feet high and the canal completely filled in. The tail race to the river is barely discernible in the lower right and is now filled with brush and silt.

and written about, so that more is known about them today than when they were in circulation.

The same cannot be said of Crocker Bros. Other than a few old deeds, some meager records, and a few scanty references in town histories, the company has disappeared from the scene. A sad fate for so progressive and innovative company!

The remains of the main canal. Stonework to the left is about 18' high and nothing remains of the left bank, the stones probably being used for some farmer's fence.

CENTURY OLD NOTES

The United States Mint in 1871 redeemed and destroyed one million five thousand two hundred and fifteen copper one cent pieces, bearing date prior to 1858. Thus far, in 1872, about one and one-half million coppers additional have been redeemed. — Mason's Coin Collector Magazine, 1872.

PRESIDENT'S DESK

This past month has been an eventful one for numismatics and a busy one for your ANA president. On Monday, December 6, I had the privilege of representing the ANA when the last of approximately 2,900,000 Carson City silver dollars were transferred from the Treasury in Washington, D. C., to the silver bullion depository at West Point, New York. There they were turned over to the General Services Administration for eventual sale in about a year. The numismatic press and the general press were well represented and there have been numerous reports of this event. It was impressive and to numismatists, means another milestone in the history of the Carson City Mint coins.

Later in the month, I travelled to Washington, D. C., where I had an enjoyable visit with Mrs. Mary Brooks, director of the U. S. Mint, and her staff and with Mr. James Conlon, director of the Bureau of Engraving and Printing, and his staff. Matters of numismatic interest were discussed concerning our coins and currency and relating to our bicentennial in 1976. It was a pleasure to meet with these people whose business relates so closely to our hobby and who are making an honest attempt to consider numismatists in the conduct of their day-to-day business. At the same time, I also visited offices of several congressmen—representatives and senators—to discuss matters relative to coins, currency, and hobby protection and to obtain up-to-date information relating to bills having to do with these subjects.

During the latter part of the month, I visited our ANA headquarters in Colorado Springs. A great deal of time was spent with Adna Wilde, Jr., executive director, and Mrs. Ruthann Brettell, office manager, going over the organization and operation of the headquarters. We also discussed the coming 1972 ANA convention to be held in New Orleans, La., and future ANA conventions. Considerable time was spent with Ed Rochette, editor of The Numismatist. We went over all phases of the printing and publishing of our monthly publication. I also spent time with Mrs. Geneva Karlson, ANA librarian. I am glad to report that the library material has been well catalogued and repaired where necessary and is available for ANA member use. I also talked with our new ANA curator, Richard Long. We discussed aspects of acquisitions, displays, and plans for museum cases.

During my term of office, I plan to make frequent trips to Washington, D. C., and to our headquarters in Colorado Springs. I will report on these visits to the membership. However, it is my hope that more members will make the trip to our ANA headquarters to see firsthand how our organization is operated.

LEGAL TENDER NOTES of the CURRENCY COMMISSION and the CENTRAL BANK OF IRELAND

by Derek Young, ANA 60650

The Currency Act of 1927 made it lawful for the Currency Commission to issue legal tender notes for the Irish Free State and the following year the commission, with the assistance of an advisory committee, decided on the designs to be used on the notes. The advisory committee consisted of Thomas Bodkin, D.Litt., director of the National Gallery; Dermot O'Brien, president of the Royal Hibernian Academy and Lucius O'Callaghan, a former director of the National Gallery. All three of these men also advised on the designs for the new coinage.

The commission also called in Mr. A. J. Bull of the London County Council School of photoengraving for advice on colors and inks.

The Designs

The set of notes consisted of seven denominations — ten shillings (10/-); one pound (£1); five pounds (£5); ten pounds (£10); twenty pounds (£20); fifty pounds (£50); and one hundred pounds (£100).

The notes were printed in England by the firm of Waterlow & Sons and their chief portrait engraver, John Harrison, was commissioned to engrave the dies.

A few years earlier Harrison had engraved a series of bookplates for Sir John Lavery, R.A., one of these

The author is the editor of Irish Numismatics, Ireland's international coin magazine. He is presently publishing a complete catalogue of Irish banknotes with all dates of issue. This short article is believed to be the first on Irish paper money published from a collector's viewpoint and is part of the complete catalogue under preparation. Collectors wishing to contact the author may do so by writing Stagecast Publications, 15 Eaton Square, Monkstown, Dublin, Ireland.

being a portrait by Sir John of his wife, Lady Hazel Lavery. As the currency commission specified that an Irish colleen was required in the design to be symbolical of the new Irish state, Harrison used this as part of the design of the new notes. Lady Lavery is shown in Irish national costume, her chin resting on her hand and leaning on a cláirseach (Irish harp) against a background of lakes and mountains. The full portrait is used on the £10, £20, £50 and £100 notes but on the 10/-, £1 and £5 notes a head and shoulders only appears.

Harrison also engraved the reverses of the notes and these designs were based on a series of sculptured river-masks, executed in the eighteenth century by Edward Smyth for the facade of the Dublin Custom House. Smyth had sculptured fourteen of these river-masks representing the Atlantic and thirteen Irish rivers and from these, seven were selected for the banknotes.

On the 10/- the River Blackwater is represented with a head-dress of a basket of apples and a harvest of fish.

The River Lee is shown on the £1 and the Lagan on the £5.

The river-mask of the Bann appears on the £10, wearing a linen turban and a string of river pearls.

The Boyne is represented on the £20 note and it is interesting to observe that while the original on the Custom House bears the date — on the headband — of the historic battle on that river in 1690, this has been omitted on the banknote design.

The Shannon is the river represented on the £50 note and the Erne, displaying its eel fisheries on the head-dress, on the £100 note.

The main watermark is a Head of Erin, in profile, from a copy in the National Museum of a model by the Irish sculptor, Hogan. In addition, minor watermarks consist of the letters LTN (for Legal Tender Note) on all denominations and the value in figures on the 10/-, £1, £5 and £10 notes.

Description of the Notes

The first issue of notes bear the date 10.9.28 (September 10, 1928) and were issued by The Currency Commission, Irish Free State. They carried this inscription in English at the top left of the note with the Irish version Coimisiún Airgid Reatha/Saorstát Éireann on the top right hand side. The notes were completely bilingual unlike the coinage issued in the same year which bore Irish-language inscriptions only.

On the left-hand side was the portrait in an oval frame and on the right-hand side was the main watermark.

Signatures on the original notes were JOSEPH BRENNAN (Chairman of the Currency Commission) and J. J. McELLIGOTT (Secretary of the Department of Finance). These appeared in the centre of the notes, one above the other, with their authorizations in small letters beneath the signatures. The English versions are to the left with the Irish translations — CATHAOIRLEACH CHOIMISIÚN AN AIRGID REATHA and RÚNAÍ NA ROINNE AIRGID respectively — in similar style letters to the right.

value in Irish in a similar panel on the right.

In a small panel on the left at the bottom of each note was the inscription "(Value) STERLING PAYABLE TO BEARER ON DEMAND IN LONDON." In a similar panel on the right was the Irish version "(Value) STERLING INÍOCHTA AS AN NÓTA SO LE N-A SHEALBHÓIR AR N-A ÉILEAMH SAN DO I LUNDAIN."

The denomination in figures appeared in each corner and in the lower centre.

Types

Treating the series as a whole, that is Currency Commission and Central Bank notes, from 1928 to date, there are ten different general types. However not all denominations were issued for each general type.

The following is a breakdown by denomination of General Types issued:

SIZES

Denomination	Size in Millimeters
10/-	77.79 x 138.1
£1	84.14 x 150.8
£5	92.08 x 165.1
£10	107.95 x 190.5
£20	114.3 x 203.2
£50	114.3 x 203.2
£100	114.3 x 203.2

- 10/- Discontinued 6.6.68, therefore no General Type 10.
 £1 All ten General Types issued.
 £5 All ten General Types issued.
 £10 All ten General Types issued.
 £20 Seven types issued. No General Types 2, 3 or 4.
 £50 Seven types issued. No General Types 2, 3 or 4.
 £100 Eight types issued. No General Types 3 or 4.

The following are the ten General Types with their main characteristics and dates of issue:

TYPE 1. (a) Issued by the "Currency Commission, Irish Free State." (b) Signatures are Joseph Brennan and J. J. McElligott. (c) The serial number has fractional prefixes, e.g. A/01 issued in 1928 only.

TYPE 2. (a) and (b) as Type 1. (c) The prefixes are whole numbers. Issued 1929-1937.

TYPE 3. (a) Issued by the "Currency Commission Ireland." (b) and (c) as Type 2. The Irish translation of "Secretary of the Department of Finance" changed from "Rúnaí na Roinne Airgid" to "Rúnaidhe na Roinne Airgeadais." Issued 1938-1939.

TYPE 4. As Type 3 but overprinted with an identifying code letter in a circle at the top left-hand side and bottom right-hand side of each note. As these notes were issued during the early years of World War II, and as they were printed in England and had to be shipped to Ireland, they were issued in very small lots and the purpose of the code letter was to keep trace of any shipments which might possibly have gone astray due to the wartime conditions. Issued from 1940 to 1942.

TYPE 5. (a) The issuing authority was changed to "The Central Bank of Ireland." The wartime code letters also appear on this type. Issued in 1943 and 1944.

With the formation of the Central Bank on February 1, 1943, Joseph Brennan became "Governor" instead of "Chairman of the Currency Commission" and consequently his title changes beneath his signature on the notes, the English version being to the left and the Irish version "An Gobharnóir" to the right.

TYPE 6. Similar to the previous type but without the wartime code letters. Issued 1945-1953.

TYPE 7. First change of signatures. J. J. McElligott becomes Governor and K. Redmond, Secretary of the Department of Finance. The "Rúnaidhe" in the latter's Irish-language title change back to "Rúnaí." Notes issued 1954-1956.

TYPE 8. Similar to previous type but another change of signature. J. J. McElligott remained as Governor but T. K. Whitaker became Secretary of the Department of Finance. Issued 1957-1960.

TYPE 9. (1961-1968). Signatures are M. O. Muimhneachain (Governor) and T. K. Whitaker remains as Secretary of the Department of Finance.

Perhaps the most significant change on this type was the omission of the phrase "Payable to bearer on demand in London." This was replaced simply by the value of the note in words.

The phrase had given rise to a number of misunderstandings regarding the Irish currency. At one time Irish money was backed mainly by British securities and sterling, but in addition it now has substantial dollar investments and gold behind it.

The phrase "Payable to bearer on demand in London" simply meant that they were exchangeable for British Legal Tender at the Central Bank of Ireland's London Agency which happened to be the Bank of England.

The omission of the phrase in no way alters the fact that they are still exchangeable with British Legal Tender at par value.

The first note to appear without the long-established inscription was the £20 denomination dated 1.6.61 and it was similarly deleted on other denominations as they were printed.

TYPE 10. (1969-) T. K. Whitaker now becomes Governor and his signature in that capacity, together with C. H. Murray as Secretary of the Department of Finance, appear on this type note.

Printing

From 1928 to 1959 all Irish Legal Tender Notes were printed in England by Waterlow & Sons Ltd.

In 1959 Thomas De La Rue & Co. Ltd. took over the printing of the £1 notes. Waterlow's continued to print the £5, £10 and £50 in 1960 but that was their final issue and all denominations were printed by De La Rue from 1961 onwards.

The notes had to be transported to Ireland by British Railways in sealed boxes under strict security precautions.

This unwieldy procedure was eliminated in 1968 when all Irish note-printing was transferred to De La Rue's Irish branch.

We believe the first note to have been printed in Ireland was the £5 denomination of 12.8.68 although some of the earlier issues of this date were printed in England.

The Central Bank intend to print their own notes directly when the Bank's new printing works at Sandy-ford, Co. Dublin are completed in 1973.

The paper on which the notes are printed is made in England by the firm of Portals Ltd. In October 1970, the Central Bank decided that a security thread should be incorporated in the paper of all future £1, £5 and £10 notes.

It is also probable that new designs and sizes will shortly be issued.

Time for Club Publications To Put Best Issues Forward

Reminder to ANA Clubs!

Local, state, and regional member clubs are reminded to send one copy of each of their 1971 publications to Adna Wilde, ANA Executive Director, P. O. Box 2366, Colorado Springs, Colo. 80901, for judging in competition for the annual Club Publication Awards.

Entries must be submitted not later than February 15.

The rules will be the same as last year. Two awards will be presented, each bearing equal significance and merit. One shall be eligible to state and/or regional (but not national) organizations only; the other to local clubs.

Publications issued by member organizations quarterly or more frequently during a calendar year shall be eligible for judging, except those having an elected or salaried officer of the association as editor or assistant editor.

Awards shall be made on the basis of general appearance, newness, composition, quality and aptness of illustrations (if any appear), arrangement, and relative interest to readers of the copies submitted.

Judging shall be done under the direction of the ANA awards committee chairman by a panel of not less than five members appointed by the president of ANA. The panel of judges shall include the association's editor and the chairman of its committee having responsibility for club activities.

The awards shall be presented at the annual convention following the calendar year of publication. It shall not be mandatory to issue either award in any year in which, in the opinion of the judging panel, no publication worthy of the award is submitted. Nonpayment of ANA dues for the year in which the award would be made shall disqualify the club from further consideration for that year's award.

Last year's winners, California State Numismatic Association (state and/or regional) and San Diego Numismatic Society (local), received a specially designed logo that can be utilized on the clubs' masthead to signify that theirs is the best of their class. The 1971 winners will also receive a specially designed logo which points with pride to their No. 1 publication.

We have already had interested clubs inquiring about this year's contest. Does this mean we can count on a much greater participation this year? We hope so.

We expect a repeat performance from last year's 38 clubs plus an even greater number of first-time participants.

If you're proud of your club's publication, flaunt it!

NEW & RECENT ISSUES

by Ernst Kraus, LM 129

It is the important duty of The Numismatist to record and illustrate new coins. To accomplish this, members in the United States and abroad are invited to submit new issues to Ernst Kraus, Room 939 (include room number in address), 393 Seventh Ave., New York, N.Y. 10001. Coins will be photographed and returned as soon as possible, and a credit line will be given to anyone assisting.

Dominican Republic

The dramatic history of this country began in 1492 with Columbus' discovery of the island that he called, "The Spanish Island," later to be known as Hispaniola. After failing to establish a permanent settlement on the western end of the island in what is now Haiti, he founded a new settlement on the north coast. In 1496, his brother Bartolome, founded the city of Santo Domingo, the first permanent settlement in the new world. It was so-named for the patron saint of Columbus' father—St. Dominic. The Spaniards took possession of the entire island and called it Santo Domingo. The French later settled the western third of the island in the seventeenth century calling their colony—Saint-Dominque. Following a war for independence, this became Haiti. The island is still divided today; to the west, Haiti; to the east the Dominican Republic.

Germany, East

Ernst Thälmann, one of the most ruthless founding fathers of the German Communist Party, has been selected as the subject of the latest East German commemorative coin.

Germany, West

West Germany's latest commemorative issue marks the unification of all German states into one empire under the domination of Prussia and the House of Hohenzollern, with Kaiser Wilhelm I as its emperor. The actual founder and master architect was Count Otto von Bismarck. He proclaimed a new and unified Germany at the Palace of Versailles, near Paris, at the close of the Franco-Prussian War, on January 17, 1871. He remained as reichschancellor to guide the new state for many years.

Y- 5 mark, 1971. Silver. Obverse: German Parliament building in Berlin (Reichstags gebäude); the letter L for the designer, Prof. Robert Lippl, at right; legend DEM DEUTSCHEN VOLKE (to the German people) below; dates 1871 1971 below and six pointed star below dates. Reverse: Spread eagle with divided date 1971 under its wings; legend BUNDES REPUBLIK DEUTSCHLAND below; mintmark G (Karlsruhe) and value 5 DEUTSCHE MARK near base. Edge inscription EINIGKEIT UND RECHT UND FREIHEIT (Unity and Justice and Liberty). Diameter 29mm. Weight 11.3 grams.

Hungary

The October issue of The Numismatist, New and Recent Issues, p. 1446, reported the imminent release of a 5 forint by the National Bank of Hungary produced on pure nickel blanks made by Sherritt Gordon of Canada. A companion 10 forint was placed in circulation in mid-1971.

India

India's minor ten-paise has, in recent years, seen a change from cupro-nickel to nickel-brass, and now to aluminum joining other minor values in this definitive series struck in this lightweight base metal.

A-86. 10 paise, 1971. Aluminum. Obverse: The Asoka Pillar in center; Hindi legend at left, Bahrat; in English INDIA at right; all within a circle of dots surrounded by a floral wreath design. Reverse: Numerals 10 in center; Hindi legend for Paisa at

Indonesia

With the fall of President Sukarno, Bank Indonesia is slowly replacing coins bearing the portrait of the late dictator with a definitive series showing the flora and fauna of the islands. Although dated 1970, the coins are just receiving general circulation.

Y-8. 1 rupiah, 1970. Aluminum. Obverse: A small bird with a fanlike tail; value 1 RP above. Reverse: Value in center 1 / RUPIAH; date 1970 below between two stars; legend BANK INDONESIA around upper part. Edge plain. Diameter 22mm. Weight 1.42 grams.

Y-9. 2 rupiah, 1970. Aluminum. Obverse: Value in upper left and center 2 RP; a riceplant and cotton branch form a wreath around right and lower part. Reverse: Similar to preceding except for value. Edge plain. Diameter 26mm. Weight 2.29 grams.

Y-10. 5 rupiah, 1970. Aluminum.

Obverse: In the upper part a long tailed bird, similar to the Tui bird of New Zealand, seated on a tree branch; value RP 5 below. Reverse: Similar to preceding except for value. Edge plain. Diameter 28.5mm. Weight 3 grams.

Isle of Man

One of the most ancient legislative assemblies in the world, the Isle of Man, has introduced a complete series of decimal denomination coins to match the new British pieces.

Y-2. 1/2 new penny, 1971. Bronze. Obverse: Arnold Machin's portrait of the queen with diadem, to right; legend ELIZABETH THE SECOND around. Reverse: A cushion, the distinctive yellow bloom of the common ragwort, long regarded as the national flower, in the center; value HALF NEW PENNY below; ISLE OF MAN above. Edge plain. Diameter 17mm. Weight 1.78 grams.

Y-3. 1 new penny, 1971. Bronze. Obverse: As preceding. Reverse: Ring chain pattern, based on characteristic decorations from the 10th century Norse crossarms, in the center; value ONE NEW PENNY below; ISLE OF MAN above. Edge plain. Diameter 20.3mm. Weight 3.56 grams.

Y-4. 2 new pence, 1971. Bronze. Obverse: As preceding. Reverse: Two falcons, the early statutory tribute paid on the occasion of the coronation of the King of England, in the center; value below; ISLE OF MAN above. Edge plain. Diameter 25.9mm. Weight 7.12 grams.

Y-5. 5 new pence, 1971. Cupronickel. Obverse: As preceding. Reverse: The Tower of Refuge erected in 1832 on a rock near the entrance to Douglas Harbor, notorious as a place of shipwrecks, in the center; value below; ISLE OF MAN above. Edge milled. Diameter 23.4mm. Weight 5.5 grams.

Y-6. 10 new pence, 1971. Cupronickel. Obverse: As preceding. Reverse: The Triune, known from heraldic rolls of the late 13th century, the three legs, armored and spurred, formed the arms of the medieval kings of Man, later becoming the official coat of arms of the island, in the center; value below; ISLE OF MAN above. Edge milled. Diameter 28.5mm. Weight 11.5 grams.

Y-7. 50 new pence, 1971. Cupronickel. Obverse: As preceding. Reverse: A Viking ship in the center, indicative of the Norse Viking settlement of the Isle of Man in the 9th century; value spelled out below; ISLE OF MAN above. Seven sided planchet. Diameter 30mm. Weight 13.5 grams.

All reverse designs by Christopher Ironside. All struck at the Royal Mint, London.

Mauritius

Mauritius is a small island of volcanic origin surrounded by coral reefs, lying in the Indian Ocean, about 500 miles east of Madagascar. The Dutch settled on the island in 1638 and in 1722 French planters and their African slaves settled there. It was governed by the French East India Company until 1767 when the French government took over administration. The Treaty of Paris, in 1814, ceded the island to Britain and on March 12, 1968, it became an independent territory. Symbol of the new country, one of the world's smallest, is an emerging dodo bird. Reported to have lived on Mauritius only, the dodo has been extinct since the end of the 17th century.

Y-32. 10 rupees, 1971. Cupronickel. Obverse: Crowned portrait of the queen to right as designed by Sir Cecil Thomas; legend QUEEN ELIZABETH THE SECOND 1971 around. Reverse: The dodo bird in center; value 10

RUPEES below; legend MAURITIUS INDEPENDENCE around. Edge milled. Diameter 35mm. Weight 17.5 grams.

Turkey

Continuing with its reduced weight coinage series, first introduced in 1968, the 50 kurus represents a denomination not issued since the silver coinage of 1947-1948.

A-113. 50 kurus, 1971. Acomintal (stainless steel). Obverse: Young girl in native headdress facing left; legend TURKIYE CUMHURİYETİ (Turkish Republic) around. Reverse: Value and date 50 KURUS 1971 within wreath of wheat and daphne branches; star and crescent above. Edge milled. Diameter 25.4mm. Weight 6 grams.

All struck at the State Mint in Istanbul.

Yemen

(People's Democratic Republic)

Not to be confused with Yemen, the scene of almost a decade of intermittent civil war, the People's Democratic Republic of Yemen, is the new name for Southern Yemen, a member of the ill-fated South Arabian Federation. Except for recognition of the new name, the following coinage issue is the same as its predecessor.

Y-2. 5 fils, 1971. Bronze. Obverse: Eight pointed star in center; English legend below DEMOCRATIC YEMEN and repeated in Arabic above. Reverse: Crossed daggers in center; date 1971 below; value above 5 FILS in Arabic and English. Edge plain. Diameter 28mm. Weight 4.8 grams.

MUSEUM NOTES

Last Call for Auction Material!

There's still time—we need your duplicates by February 10 to place in our spring auction to raise funds for the Museum. You read about the auction on page 1790 of the December issue, and response has been very good, but we need some more help.

Here's what we're doing: Professional numismatist, Jess Peters, will conduct an auction soon of donated material—pieces that our members have given to the museum. We know that many of you cannot give cash, so here's a chance to help the painless way, by giving numismatic material.

If you will just sort out some pieces and wrap them up so you can mail them tomorrow, we will receive them in plenty of time. Remember to place the retail value on them so that we can issue a receipt that you may use in computing your 1972 income tax. You have made a tax-deductible contribution, and you have the satisfaction of having been one of the original donors who helped to develop your museum. Give us a hand—we'll really appreciate it! Medals Commemorating Jewish Activities

Jewish Medals

From the Renaissance to the Fall of Napoleon (1503-1815)

MEDALS ISSUED to commemorate Jewish activities are rare in early days. The Jewish tradition which frowned on graven images was violated by individuals, and especially rich Sephardic Jews or members of the Berlin circle centered around Moses Mendelssohn, but still had great force in the general community. Bit by bit, however, the influence of the Christian environment modified and finally diluted this restriction.

The earliest object in this class can tentatively be called a circumcision medal. It is a product of the Amsterdam Jewish community in the seventeenth century, issued at about the same time as the award to Josef Athias for publishing a fine Hebrew Bible. The Dutch Jews were gaining in prosperity and had taken a role similar to that of the Italian Jews during the Renaissance a century before. A product of this pride in achievement was the 1665 medal ordered by a father on the birth of his son, named David after the beloved king of biblical days. Almost 3½ inches in diameter, and cast and chased in gold, this is the first medal we relate to circumcision.¹ The obverse shows the anointing of David as king, kneeling beside his throne in a palace, and surrounded by a group of nobles and warriors. The style is strongly influenced by the famous Joachimstahl biblical medals issued during the previous century, and like them the legend, entirely in Hebrew, circles the outer rim. The Hebrew reads: "He was born on the fifth day of the month of Tammuz in the year 5425. And the Lord said: 'Arise, anoint him; for this is he!'"² The quotation is from 1 Sam. 16:12, and since the "he" in the quotation refers to the future King David, it is apparent the medal celebrates the birth of a son named David. The reference to anointing is further assumed to mean the issuance is associated with the attendant circumcision.

The reverse adds little to the clarification of the question. King David is shown playing the harp and danc-

1. It should be noted that the Strauss-Rothschild Collection, now located in the Cluny Museum of Paris, contains a circumcision bowl attributed to the sixteenth century. The jump from a bowl to a medal apparently took a century in the Christian environment of Western Europe.

2. The writer has seen the medal only in photographs and is indebted to Dr. Isaiah Shachar, Curator of the Department of Jewish Art in the Israel National Museum, Jerusalem, for filling in certain points.

ing before the Ark, which is carried on the shoulders of four priests. Behind, other priests play musical instruments; above, the queen looks down from a Renaissance palace window. In the background can be seen other buildings, portrayed in Gothic style. The legend on the outer rim, again entirely in Hebrew, states "And David danced before the Lord with all his might; and David was girded with a linen ephod." The quotation is from 2 Sam. 6:14.

Almost an entire century passed before we have a record of another birth medal, also assumed to celebrate circumcision. This too occurred in Holland. Dated 5508 in Hebrew, and therefore issued in 1747-1748, the obverse of the medal shows a pair of scales with a ribbon, indicating the hope of the parents that later life would deal justly with the child. The reverse is inscribed in Hebrew: "In the city of Dorbrecht, Abraham, the son of Hertog (Zangers)."³

The next reported circumcision medals come from the United States. We learn from early Jewish Americana⁴ that two such medals were given to Jewish fathers. The inscriptions were entirely in Hebrew. The obverse of the first states, in two circular lines, "I, Elchanan son of Abraham lifted up my hands in the holy covenant to circumcise the boy Moses son of David on Monday, 5 Tishri, this day being the thirteenth since his birth in 5544." The second is similar except the name is "Israel son of Isaac." The mohel issuing the medals was Elchanan bar Abraham, the two fathers referred to were David Hays and Isaac Moses, and the year was 1784. Most interesting, the engraver was Myer Myers, the great American silversmith who only two years later was elected chairman of the Gold and Silver Smiths' Society of New York — and who was also honored by the presidency of the Spanish and Portuguese Synagogue (Congregation Shearith Israel) of that city in 1759 and again in 1770. There may have been other, similar medals, for a number on the reverse of one would seem to indicate a series.

Until recently, it was accepted that the circumcision medal was largely restricted to mid-nineteenth-century Holland (as well as a few somewhat earlier by Aaron Kohn of Germany), most of them having been issued from Utrecht between 1840 and 1870. The fact that additional medals have been uncovered going back another two hundred years indicates that our stereotyped ideas on many Jewish customs must be revised in accordance with new information. It is obvious that the Jews extended the Christian baptismal medal to their own custom of circumcision at a much earlier date than thought. The fragile nature of these medals and the insecurity of Jewish life meant they were melted down or destroyed.

The other early medals associated with Jewish activities were utilitarian in nature. In Amsterdam the Jewish graveyards were outside the city proper, and tokens served as an exit permit for the men who conducted the Jewish funeral processions. Two from the Ashkenazic community have been preserved at the Jewish Historical Museum in Amsterdam and date from 1671 and 1714. They are of engraved silver with a simple Jewish star and carry inscriptions in Hebrew on both sides. "Let Pass at Muyderbergh" and "Let Pass at Zeeburg" are the pass phrases, according to Dr. Arthur Polak — these being the locations of the cemeteries. On the token dated 1714, the writer has been able to read from a photograph, "The Holy Congregation Amsterdam Ashkenazi"; another photograph (which is not indicated whether from 1671 or 1714) is engraved "In Eternal Memory" and "House of Life," the latter being a euphemism for graveyard. It is not clear whether different passes were issued each year or the later tokens replaced the earlier simply because of wear.

The cemetery of the Portuguese Jews, as distinct from the Ashkenazim, was located at the suburb of Oudekerk, and its picturesque atmosphere attracted seventeenth-century

Dutch painters and engravers. There are extant several etchings of the scene. The best-known painting is by J. van Ruysdael, now located at the Dresden Museum. It must be added that the painting bears little relation to reality.

The Amsterdam Chevra Kadisha or Jewish Burial Society also needed permits to bring corpses to the cemeteries. These were likewise in the form of silver tokens, a perforation in the center indicating they were probably stacked on a stick and handed out as required. One dated 1778, now in the National Museum of Israel, shows the city gate with the name of the graveyard at Muyderbergh below and "Let Pass" above — it is significant that the words now, a century later, appear in Dutch rather than Hebrew. However, the reverse, engraved in a double line with a Jewish star, still indicates the date in Hebrew. Another similar token, undated but from the same period, shows a bier on the obverse, while the name "Isac Burgh" replaces the cemetery location. Possibly Isac Burgh was the caretaker.

The other few medals in this category can be divided into two groups: school and prize medals, and synagogue medals. Their origins are scattered.

In 1788 the Talmud Torah in London, predecessor to the Jews' Free School, issued a brass plaque, apparently to be worn by the children for identification purposes. It was inscribed "Holy Confraternity of Talmud Torah: Established A. M. 5492." We are indebted for this information to Dr. Cecil Roth. It is apparent that the founding date is merely a guide and that the same plaque might have been worn by a generation of children.

Closely thereafter, in 1808, appears an Italian prize medal, though the city and organization are not indicated. The bronze medal shows a high degree of assimilation, for the words are entirely in Italian, and the inscription — "For Good Conduct of the Brotherhood of Charity and Pity" — is cast in a form entirely Catholic in concept. We are entitled (if only by adoption) to include this as a Jewish award, however, for the date on the edge is engraved in Hebrew, which would be unthinkable, given the time and place, for a Catholic institution.

Properly speaking, the only true medal of this group is the 1791 commemorative medal issued at the foundation of the Jewish Wilhelm School of Breslau. This was the school greatly aided by Lippmann Meyer, for whom, as noted before, a personal medal was issued in 1803. The Breslau Jews, however, were insecure after the anti-Semitic administration of Frederick the Great and judiciously preferred to pay homage to the Christian minister who made possible the existence of the school. On the obverse is shown a new branch growing from a cut trunk with the words "Ennobled by Count Hoym" overhead, and the date, 1791, below. The reverse states "Foundation of the Jewish Wilhelm School at Breslau, the 15th March." The reference is to Count Karl von Hoym, the top minister in the Silesian government, through whom the Jews received a new constitution in 1790.

There are only two synagogue medals struck before the fall of Napoleon,⁵ indicating how deeply Jews felt the traditional prohibition when it came to this matter. The first, though we know of it through literary sources, is not listed in any major museum or private collection. Under the impetus of the French Revolution and the formation of the Batavian Republic, a group of the most advanced Ashkenazic Dutch Jews decided to organize a reform synagogue. The Adat Jeshurun Synagogue was inaugurated in Amsterdam in 1800, and a bronze medal was issued to celebrate the occasion. The orthodox tradition of both Sephardic and Ashkenazic elements in Holland was too strong, and the separate congregation lasted only till 1808.

5. A rather cryptic reference is made to what might be a very early synagogue medal in the Strauss-Rothschild Collection at the Cluny Museum of Paris. Some of the medals in this collection were described by Moise Schwab in an article appearing in the Revue des Etudes Juives, Vol. 23 (1891-92), pp. 136-38. Schwab refers to a medal "probably in commemoration of the inauguration of a synagogue," whose description is that of a temple "rather Greek than Oriental," with legends about King Solomon. The piece is reputedly from the sixteenth or seventeenth century. Since the legends are in French and the building shown admittedly cannot be identified, it is only conjecture to suppose this is a Jewish synagogue medal.

The other synagogue medal commemorates the building of the Bordeaux Synagogue in 1810. The medal is struck in a very simple form, totally different from the rich run of German synagogue medals that follow in the next hundred years — indeed, the dearth of French synagogue medals is quite surprising even into present days. On the obverse, the medal merely states "Consistorial Synagogue of Bordeaux;" on the reverse, "Built in 1810 under the reign of Napoleon the Great." This synagogue was destroyed by a fire in 1873 and replaced by another which, noted for both its size and beautiful interior, still stands and has been called the cathedral synagogue of the Sephardic Jews of France. It may be added that the Bordeaux Jewish community, settled by Marrano refugees, is one of the oldest Jewish groups in France. Under the ambiguous guise of "New Christians" — and with a considerable amount of bribe money at certain occasions — they managed to survive when the Jews of Provence and Paris were dispersed. It is therefore natural that the Bordeaux Jews were the first openly to proclaim the construction of their synagogue.

Help Received and Help Wanted

Thanks to very stimulating assistance from Glenn Smedley and with the really impressive promptness of the cooperation afforded by our librarian, Mrs. Geneva Karlson, I am encouraged to continue research into the interesting history of Dominican Republic coinage, on which there appears to be a really challenging lack of reliable documentation.

Being a relatively inexperienced collector of only some four years' activity but all the more interested for the late start, I have tried to learn all possible about Dominican coinage, only to find that information is scattered, sketchy, often contradictory or unavailable.

It is my hope that you may be able to publish this or at least an extract of it, so that readers of The Numismatist may contact me if they care to share any tid bits of information with me for our mutual progress.

Of specific interest at the moment are:

1) The 1891 issue, minted in Paris from dies engraved by Tasset. I would appreciate suggestions on how to learn more about Tasset himself and whether he also designed the coin, etc.

2) The 1897 issue, minted in Philadelphia under contract to the firm of Charles S. Platt at 29 Gold Street, New York, using dies made in Paris. Can anyone suggest how I may attempt to learn more about Platt's arrangements for executing this contract?

3) The relation between the two issues. Mr. Smedley has discovered the very important fact that Victor D. Brenner claims to have designed the 1897 "dollar." Not having the necessary scientific equipment at my disposal, I do not know if the basic design items are identical in both issues but certainly they appear to be; yet the "T" of designer Tasset's initial is missing from the latter issue of which the medio-peso piece is of a size not paralleled in the 1891 issue and therefore presumably needed new dies made.

Did Brenner design the 1891 piece as well as the 1897 piece, and if not, why are they so similar? If so, why did he not claim the 1891 design? Also, if Tasset engraved the 1891 dies, did he do the 1897 dies or modify the 1891 dies?

A Word of Warning!

At the last Schulman auction in Amsterdam, on November 8, a three gulden piece, 1823 B, King William I (Davenport 233) sold in excess of $6,000 U. S. The coin has a plain edge with the inscription, "GOD + ZY + MET + ONS +".

Immediately, two Dutch firms made restrikes of the above coin. The only difference between the original and the restrike is that the edge of the restrike is milled. The restrike has been given to bankers for resale at about $22 U. S.

I hope that not many dealers shall buy this piece as an original.

Physician — A Series of Four Medals

Sculptor Milton Horn gives final touches to the models for a series of four 70mm square medals that he has created for the Medical Heritage Society, 20 N. Wacker Dr., Chicago 60606. The series captures in timeless interpretation the four important roles of the physician — healer, researcher, technologist, and teacher. Struck by Medallic Art Co., New York, the series will be available in gold on gold fill, fine silver and bronze.

Krause Publications

Lance Swan, GSA official, discusses the breakdown of rare Carson City dollars that the government is preparing for sale to collectors. News media, including representatives of all leading numismatic publications, attended the briefing, as did John Jay Pittman, president of ANA.

Silver Dollar Transfer Is First Step Towards Release

WEST POINT, N. Y. — The transfer of 2.9 million Carson City silver dollars from the U. S. Treasury in Washington to the Silver Bullion Depository here on December 6 marked the first step toward public sale of the historic coins about a year from now.

In a ceremony here, General Services Administration officials accepted trusteeship of the silver dollars from the Treasury, and will begin the process of sorting and packaging them, leading to public sale.

The coins, most of which have never been circulated, are regarded by numismatists as choice items. Some have estimated their value as ranging from 20 to 200 times their face worth. They were minted at the now closed Carson City, Nevada, mint between 1878 and 1891. A comparatively small number of other silver dollars—some already circulated and some from other mints—will be sold at the same time.

There are 10 categories by year of the uncirculated Carson City coins: 1878 to 1885, 1890 and 1891. Two other categories, one circulated and one uncirculated, are comprised of coins of other dates and mints.

Sale of the silver dollars will be strictly regulated by GSA in order to ensure fair distribution. Individual buyers will be allowed 10 coins in all, with not more than one from any single category.

GSA Administrator Robert L. Kunzig said it will take GSA about a year to count, sort and package the coins for sale. Each coin is to be placed in a handsome, plastic case suitable for display and will be accompanied by a brief synopsis of the history of the Carson City silver dollars.

No orders are currently being taken for the coins, GSA officials emphasized. Prior to distribution, public notice will be given of the procedure for ordering the coins.

During the past four months the coins have been delivered by seven heavily guarded semi-trailer trucks from Washington to West Point. Each truck was insured for $15 million. The coins were carefully crated to avoid marring the surfaces. Some of them are still stored in their original mint bags.

The ceremony had three parts. GSA and U.S. mint officials witnessed the arrival of the last shipment of silver dollars; then the coins were placed in the depository vault and authority for disposal officially transferred to the GSA; finally, GSA and Treasury authorities affixed their seals to the vault door. Included among the invited dignitaries was John Jay Pittman, ANA president.

The sale of the silver dollars was made possible through President Nixon's approval of the Bank Holding Company Act Amendments of 1970, which authorized disposal of long-held coins.

MINT OFFICIAL VISITS ANA HEADQUARTERS

Lang Ren Jen, an official of the Singapore Mint, included the headquarters of the American Numismatic Association in Colorado Springs on his recent U. S. itinerary. Mr. Lang was on a technical and marketing survey mission in the United States in regards to the sale and distribution of Singapore proof and collector coin sets. Seen here in the ANA museum with Adna G. Wilde, Jr., executive director, left, and Richard A. Long, curator, right, he presented a specimen set of his country's coins to the ANA.

FEATURING FAKES

DO YOU HAVE THE ORIGINAL?

The two silver pieces you see on this page actually should scare you, they're such perfectly made counterfeits!

They're both cast, but with a surface on the field which could . . . and did . . . pass for a proof.

By far the most perfect surface on a cast coin I've seen, it's been proved they're cast counterfeits.

This 1873 "seated Liberty" dollar and this 1873 Trade Dollar also have nice, sharp rims. No wonder they passed as proofs!

When I learned they were cast, I immediately placed a 'phone call to the head technician from the lab at the University of Texas' Department of Dentistry, and asked if someone had developed some new molding material more smooth than the material with which I learned to cast, just five years ago.

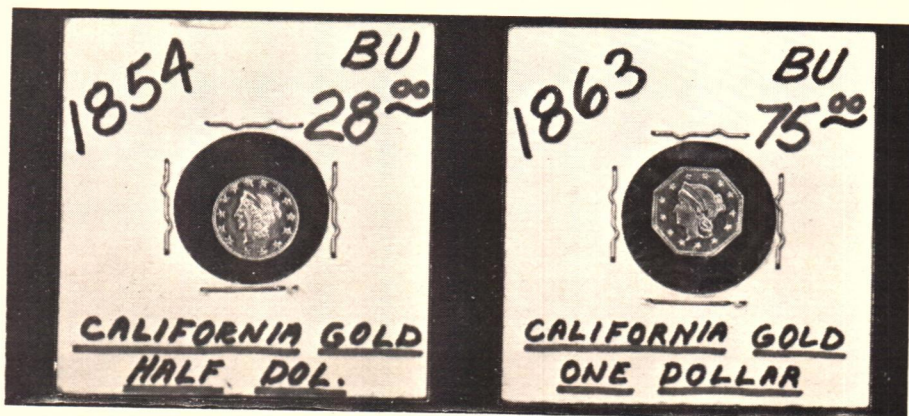

The answer was yes, but U-of-T doesn't use it yet. The further information was volunteered that it was understood that the new method was "in use in New York, and one fellow up there is counterfeiting coins with it."

As happens in 9 out of 10 instances, when I tried to pry out of the technician the name and address of the person in New York who knew the counterfeiter, the answer I received was, "I don't want to get involved!"

Truly, I'm about fed up to here with that "I-don't-want-to-get-involved" attitude!

If, all along the line in the bygone years and centuries, our ancestors had refused to take a stand, this today would be a world of claw and fang. The comparative safety in which we live in this 20th century is due solely to those who throughout history had the guts to want to get involved!

You and I owe those ancestors, we owe our fellow citizens today, and we owe the generations which will come after us, that we, ourselves, must "get involved."

Let's not expect "the other fellow" to furnish us with law and order. It's up to us to do our individual part at every opportunity.

When some collector sends me a coin for examination, and when the piece proves to have a fastened-on, counterfeit mintmark, or an altered date, or is just an out-and-out counterfeit (either cast or die-struck), I always ask, "From whom did you buy this fake, and what's his address?"

As I said, in 9 out of 10 cases I get the answer, "I'd rather not say, for I don't want to get involved."

What that collector doesn't say, but what he really means, is, "Maybe, if I don't 'squeal' on the crook who sold me this fake, I can get my money back, and then the crook can sell it to some other sucker."

So, as of this red-hot minute, I'm adopting this policy: Unless you're willing to tell me the name and address of the person selling you a coin which turns out to be a fake, don't bother sending your coin to me for examination.

That'll reduce my mail by 90 per cent!

On this page are some "gems" I picked up at ANA-Washington, D. C.

All are counterfeits, of course, including the 1911-D $2.50 gold. All were bought by dealers, who bought in haste and repented in leisure.

If ANA, in conjunction with other numismatic organizations, world-wide, could develop an informative examination . . . both written and clinical . . . for all who call themselves coin-dealers, with the goal of establishing a certification as professional numismatist, then those dealers who could pass the examination would be knowledgeable enough that they wouldn't be stuck with such counterfeits.

A collector, then, would know that he'd be patronizing a non-certified dealer at his own risk.

If you, as a collector, like the idea (which is not original with me), write John Pittman and tell him so.

R. Robert Bennighof — George Rony

R. Robert Bennighof
ANA 13145

R. Robert Bennighof, 71, passed away on October 27. Born in Ashland, Ohio, he was a lifelong resident of that city. A graduate of Hiram College, he retired after 35 years as an electrical engineer at Westinghouse. He was currently employed as a night auditor at a local motel and operated the Valley View Coin Mart in Ashland.

Well-known in numismatic circles, he had received his 25-Year Continuous Membership medal from ANA this year. A past president of the Penn-Ohio Coin Clubs and the Ashland Stamp and Coin Club, he held membership in approximately 25 coin clubs and was currently an ANA representative to five of them.

A World War I veteran, he was an active member of the Mohican Valley REACT Club besides being a numismatist and a coin and coin supply dealer. He was a man of many interests—he was a machinist with an inventive flair; woodworking and restoration of paintings were among his hobbies; and during warm weather he was an avid fisherman and spent many hours researching as an amateur horticulturist. He thoroughly enjoyed opera music.

He is survived by his wife, Florence, and one daughter, Portia Britton, of California and several nieces and nephews. One daughter, Betty, preceded him in death. Mrs. R. Robert Bennighof is currently president of the Mansfield Stamp and Coin Club. —EM

George Rony
ANA 48419

George Rony, senior editor of COINage magazine, died December 9 in Southern California. He was 63.

Born in 1908 in St. Petersburg, Russia, Rony witnessed the Russian Revolution and was a pioneer in the Russian motion picture industry. Unable to live under Communism, he moved to Germany, where he became a successful film producer. He disagreed with the Nazi party, ridiculing them in films, and was forced to flee to Paris.

When Germany invaded France, Rony fled to the United States, where he lectured on his experiences and on modern European history. He became a United States citizen in 1945 and entered semi-retirement in the 1950s.

With a background of collecting in the arts, coins and stamps, Rony opened a shop called "The Collector." In 1966 he became a member of COINage magazine's editorial staff and began his column, "Coin Flakes," which won recognition from the Numismatic Literary Guild in 1970.

Rony's contributions to the hobby included his interest in topical collecting and organizing clubs to that end. Contributions in other fields include 14 books, 20 screen plays, eight full length motion pictures and his autobiography, "This Too Shall Pass Away." —NN

BOOK REVIEWS

That is a good book which is opened with expectation, and closed with delight and profit. — A. B. Alcott.

Small Notes — Small Book — Big Bargain

HEWITT-DONLON CATALOG OF UNITED STATES SMALL SIZE PAPER MONEY by William P. Donlon, James Grebinger (error section), Lee F. Hewitt and Nathan Goldstein II (coordinator of pricing). 8th annual edition, 1972. 168 pp. Illus. Soft cover. Hewitt Bros., 7320 Milwaukee Ave., Chicago, Ill. 60648. $1.50.

Are you looking for a Kansas City Barr star note? Or a Dallas Kabis/Kennedy star note? Or a Series 1953C $5 silver certificate? If so, you should consult this catalogue and find that none of the three were ever issued, although over ninety million of the latter were printed.

Most collectors of U. S. small size paper money have used one or more of the earlier editions but only by having this new one can they be sure of having the latest data on recent issues and prices of all six classes ever issued. Price changes, as compared to the previous edition, are not numerous but some are quite pronounced. Among those noted are the rarer national bank notes, the 1933 $10 silver certificate ($1500 to $2000 unc.), some of the rarer error notes and practically all uncut sheets.

The addition of four pages to the catalogue was due almost entirely to new listings and data of recent issues resulting from the change of the Treasurer's name from Elston to Kabis and the change of Secretary from Kennedy to Connally. Quite a few changes were made in data on the national bank notes, attributal to the information published in The National Bank Note Issues of 1929-1935 compiled by the Society of Paper Money Collectors and printed by Hewitt Bros.

A few rearrangements were made from the previous edition and, in some instances, references to page numbers were not changed. Under "Star Serial Number Valuations," page 6, the reference should be to pages 21, 22 and 23, for example. In the second line on page 35 the $100 silver certificate should be $1.00 — an obvious error since there was no $100 issued in the small size. These and a few other typographical errors are not serious and probably will be corrected in the next printing.

This catalogue, as it has been from its inception in 1964 (104 pages), is a big value to collectors and others interested in U. S. paper money of 1928 to date. It may be purchased at most coin shops at $1.50 and from Hewitt Bros., Printers, at $1.65 post-paid. — Glenn S.

Two Decades of Reliability

STANDARD CATALOGUE OF CANADIAN COINS, TOKENS AND PAPER MONEY, 1670 TO DATE by J. E. Charlton. 20th annual edition, 1972. 200 pp. Illus. Paper cover. Charlton Coin and Stamp Co., 92 Jarvis St., Toronto 1, Ont., Canada. $2.50. Also a deluxe edition, $3.95.

The new twentieth edition of the Charlton Standard Catalogue perpetuates the basic formula that has assured this standard work two decades of unprecedented popularity. The book is conspicuously strengthened in the difficult area of Canadian paper money, particularly the non-bank issues, but essentially is the "Charlton catalogue" that introduced so many to the more popular Canadian series.

The token classics, the decimal sequences, and the government, bank, and other paper money are listed, along with some of the more popular varieties, with production figures (where known) and pricing in up to seven conditions. Specimen sets and "proof-like" mint sets and dollars also are listed and priced, and the fascinating five page section on Canadian and provincial "patterns, proofs, and essays or trial pieces" is retained. "Asterisk" replacement notes, which have become increasingly popular with collectors of the later paper money issues, now are listed and priced. Thus, the uncirculated Coyne-Towers "asterisk" dollars is listed at a not surprising $100. Additional decimal varieties have been incorporated, including Canada's 5 cents of 1875 and 1886 and Newfoundland's 50 cents of 1896 (small and large dates).

Valuations are the raison d'être of the annual catalogue, and Charlton, who argues that "valuations have been revised to correspond to the present market," acknowledges, "there will always be differences of opinion." On being asked his reactions to the "coin market," Charlton has made the following points:

"My own opinion is that seemingly low prices at times for some Canadian coins are often due to the coins being overgraded. I have seen this at many coin shows and conventions. On the other hand, correctly graded and choice condition coins will often sell above catalogue values."

Charlton cites in this context prices realized for certain uncirculated coins at the 1971 C.N.A. Vancouver auction: 5 cents, 1893, $39.00; 5 cents, 1858 (small date), $80.00; 1 cent, 1908, $46.00; 10 cents, 1882H, $115.00; 25 cents, 1921, $305.00; 50 cents, 1921, $8,937.00. He acknowledges that "some coins had been due for a reduction, but not all, and certainly not all the rarities."

A second area of potential disagreement—just what should be included and what omitted in a standard catalogue? Minor varieties, modern tokens, medals—where does one draw the line? Charlton has proven somewhat flexible in this regard, but has addressed his book to a mass market, and wisely concentrated on the more popular and significant material.—Harold Don Allen.

Book Received

The inclusion of a book in this list does not preclude us from publishing a review at a later date. Far too many books are received monthly to review immediately and we do not wish to deprive our members of the knowledge of their availability.

THE MODERN COINAGE OF SWEDEN by Scott Eric Cordy. First edition, 1971. 75 pp. Illus. Hard bound. Malter-Westerfield Publishing Co., P. O. Box 343, San Clemente, Ca. 92672. $6.00.

Covers the coinage of Sweden from 1855 to date. All coins are listed by date with mintages and values shown in five grades. In addition, many of the varieties are shown in detail.

SWEDISH COINS, 1521-1968 by Bertel Tingström. 1969. 271 pp. Illus. Hard bound. Numisco, 979 3rd Ave., Room 1005, New York, N. Y. 10022. $18.00.

Tingström's book, which is the foremost reference of its kind in Sweden, is now available to the collector in an English language version. A must if you are a serious collector of Scandinavian coins.

A price guide for the period covered and using the Tingström numbers as a reference is available from the same distributor—Price Guide for Swedish Coins by Harry Gluck (in Swedish), $4.50.

COINS AND NOTES OF ESTONIA, LATVIA, AND LITHUANIA by A. Platbarzdis. 1968. 183 pp. Illus. Hard cover. Numisco, 979 3rd Ave., Room 1005, New York, N. Y. 10022. $13.00.

Although printed in Sweden, the book is in English, and should prove to be a boon to this little collected series. Extremely high quality printing and illustrations, a feature sometimes missing from many current catalogues.

THE COINS OF URUGUAY by Al Almanzar and Dale Seppa. 1971. 45 pp. Illus. Paper cover. Almanzar's Coins of the World, Suite D, Milam Bldg., San Antonio, Tex. 78205. $2.00.

With a continuing tradition, these two authors have collaborated on yet another reference for South America. Fully illustrated and priced up to four conditions. Mintages included.

HALF DOLLARS OF COLOMBIA by Davis Burnett, Jr. 1971. 27 pp. Illus. Paper cover. Almanzar's Coins of the World, Suite D, Milam Bldg., San Antonio, Tex. 78205. $1.95.

Another of the same series published in association with Alcedo Almanzar. This covers the period of 1868 to 1969.

English Specialist Donates Copies of Reference Works

Richard J. Trowbridge, noted specialist on the coins of Great Britain and fellow of the Royal Numismatic Society, has donated a number of copies of some of his recent works to the Library of the American Numismatic Association. These paperback references are to be sold with the proceeds being used by the library to acquire other reference works. The author, a founder of the American-British Numismatic Society, will soon have a feature article, "The Three British Kings of 1936," appearing in The Numismatist.

The books donated by Trowbridge include:

Queen Anne, 1702-1714 — Mystery Farthings. This short reference on the farthings of Queen Anne was written for the benefit of American collectors of British coins. It gives little known information not only on this intriguing series, but about the monarch herself. 20-pages in length, a limited edition of only 500 copies was printed. Each is serially numbered. Retail price is $1.50.

Latin Legends on British Coins Translated. Needless to say, the title speaks for itself. This 14-page booklet translates the Latin legends and inscriptions that have appeared on British coins from 1558 to 1971. Again, a limited edition of 500 serially numbered copies. Retail price is $2.00.

History, Coinage, Paper Notes and Medals of Edward VIII of Great Britain. The man who abdicated for the woman he loved left little in the form of coins to mark his short reign, but his tenure was recorded by more medals and currency than most collectors realize. Trowbridge has done an excellent job in cataloguing these. Fifty-six pages in length, this reference retails for $3.50.

All references are illustrated and ANA members in good standing may realize a 20-percent discount off retail prices when ordering from the Library of the American Numismatic Association, P. O. Box 2366, Colorado Springs, Colo. 80901. Books will be sent postpaid.

You All Plan On Comin' Now!

General chairman, James H. Cohen, would like to call each and everyone of you personally to extend his cordial invitation to plan on attending the ANA's 81st anniversary convention in New Orleans, August 15 through 19, at the Jung Hotel. He's planning to make it a convention "you all" shouldn't miss — just dripping with honey and southern hospitality!

ANA Participates in City Centennial

The Museum of the American Numismatic Association was the scene of the recent unveiling of the models of the Colorado Springs Centennial medal. On hand for the occasion were members of the centennial committee, ANA headquarters staff, and Mayor Eugene McCleary. The event was covered by both local television stations, radio and the city's two newspapers. The unveiling of the models of the medal signaled the start of souvenir sales marking the 100th anniversary of the founding of Colorado Springs in 1872.

The medal was designed in local competition by Hal Small and the models were sculptored by ANA member Don Dow of Phoenix, Arizona. The obverse of the one and one-half inch, high relief, art medal depicts a scene direct from the pages of American history books — a covered wagon headed west with the famous slogan, "Pikes Peak or Bust," emblazoned across its tarpaulin. Majestic Pikes Peak towers in the background. Coincidentally, the position of the covered wagon approximates the location of the ANA headquarters building today.

The reverse of the centennial medal carries the official seal of the anniversary. Quartered, the design shows four views indicative of the area. In the upper left, the famous United States Air Force Academy chapel and falcon statue; upper right, Cutler Hall on the campus of Colorado College, the oldest private institution of higher learning in the Rocky Mountain west, the ANA headquarters is located on this same campus; lower left, site of the Easter Sunrise Services in the Garden of the Gods, traditional ceremonial grounds of the Indians as well; and lower left, the statue of General Palmer, founder of the City of Colorado Springs.

The medal, struck by Medallic Art Company of New York, was available in bronze and fine silver. The latter was offered in both serially numbered sets that included both medals, and a ribbon from the municipal flag of the city, and singly. Only one thousand silver medals were issued and five hundred of these were utilized in the sets. Almost all have been sold. A number of bronze specimens remain to be sold and these can be obtained from the Colorado Springs Centennial Committee, P. O. Box 1872, Colorado Springs, Colorado 80901. The cost is $2.00 each.

SPMC Accepts Junior Members

The Society of Paper Money Collectors is now accepting applicants for junior membership. The bylaws of the society were amended by the board of governors at its meeting in August whereby, "any individual between the ages of 12 and 18 and of good moral character and reputation who is interested in paper money as related to numismatics, shall be eligible for junior membership. The application for junior membership must be signed by a parent or a guardian."

At the same meeting, the board of governors voted to increase the dues from $4.00 to $5.00 per year, starting with 1972. The dues were made the same for regular and junior members.

Because of the wage-price regulations announced by President Nixon on August 15, 1971, the society was not permitted to put this increase in dues in effect until after November 13th.

The amendment, approved at the August meeting, to charge an initiation fee of $2.00 to new members, except juniors, was rescinded by the board of governors on November 15, 1971.

The Society of Paper Money Collectors actively encourages the study and collecting of paper money through its quarterly magazine, and its members who are located in all parts of the world. Membership in the Society now numbers over 2000, making it one of the largest of the specialized numismatic organizations. Membership dues of $5.00 per year includes subscription to the magazine, PAPER MONEY.

For further information on the Society of Paper Money Collectors write to Vernon L. Brown, Secretary, P. O. Box 8984, Fort Lauderdale, Fla. 33310.

Artists and Historians Team To Oversee $500,000 Competition

Nine eminent authorities in the fields of art and history have been appointed to the National Advisory Panel for The Franklin Mint's nationwide Bicentennial Medal Design Competition. In announcing this latest development, Franklin Mint president Charles L. Andes also disclosed that the contest which officially opened January 2, 1972, will remain open until March 31, 1972. A total of $500,000 in cash prizes will be awarded to winning artists, with $10,000 in prizes allocated in each of the 50 states, making it history's largest art competition.

The first appointments to the National Advisory Panel are: Dr. William Alderson, director, American Association for State and Local History; Dr. Bruce Catton, senior editor, American Heritage Magazine; Dr. Thomas C. Cochran, president, American Historical Association; Dr. John A. Garraty, president, Society of American Historians; Mr. Thomas B. Hess, editor, Art News Magazine; Mr. G. A. McLellan, president, Business Committee for the Arts; Miss Susan E. Meyer, editor, American Artist Magazine; Mr. Gilroy Roberts, sculptor and chairman emeritus of The Franklin Mint; and Mr. Norman Rockwell, artist and illustrator. The principal function of the National Advisory Panel will be to establish guidelines for individual judging panels to be appointed in each state.

Held in conjunction with the approaching celebration of the 200th anniversary of the United States, the program invites professional and amateur artists from each state to design a bicentennial medal portraying their state's contributions to the national heritage. The competition will run concurrently in all fifty states.

In each state, there will be a $5,000 first prize; a $2,500 second prize; a $1,500 third prize; and a $1,000 fourth prize. Artists will compete only against other participants from their own state. No previous medal designing experience is required for entering, and designs will be judged on the basis of artistic merit, originality and relevance to the theme.

The competition, giving many artists across the nation their first opportunity to design an important commemorative medal and to win a substantial cash prize, also represents the most tangible act of support and commitment to the bicentennial made by private enterprise. The 50 first-prize winning designs will be made available to state bicentennial commissions for official use, and will also be issued by The Franklin Mint in the form of a series of 50 commemorative medals. A portion of the proceeds from the sale of these medals will help to finance other bicentennial programs around the country.

In commenting on the program, Andes said, "We are, indeed, privileged to have been able to assemble this outstanding panel of advisors whose contributions and guidance will add significantly to the success of the program. We believe there should be more art competitions like this to offer artists a greater opportunity for participation in the commemoration of important historic events, along with appropriate recognition and rewards."

Entry forms for the Bicentennial Medal Design Competition may be obtained by writing to Box 1976, Franklin Center, Pennsylvania 19063.

Changing Faces

Richard Lobel & Co., Ltd., London, announces the purchase of Coincraft.

"Coincraft will fill a numismatic void," said Richard Lobel, "We expect to have the company reorganized and ready to serve the public within two months time, and to provide a central place for such previously unobtainable material as odd and curious and primitive monies, as well as paper money, ancient and new issues."

Decentralization of The Franklin Mint, Inc. into three divisions, and realignment of the responsibilities of principal executives, took effect today following board of directors approval of a five-year expansion plan for the corporation.

The five-year program calls for expansion of the scope of the corporation's activities, both domestically and abroad, and broadening of its product lines. The corporation also plans to embark on a limited acquisition program, concentrating on prestige companies which are pre-eminent in their field or which could become pre-eminent, with marketing, financial or technical assistance from The Franklin Mint.

Joseph M. Segel continues as president and chief executive officer of the corporation and assumes the additional office of chairman of the board.

Gilroy Roberts, chief sculptor and chairman of the board of the corporation since its founding, continues as chief sculptor and has been named chairman emeritus.

The three executive vice presidents of the corporation have each been elected as president and chief operating officer of one of the three divisions of the corporation.

Charles L. Andes has been elected president of The Franklin Mint Division of the corporation and will be responsible for the corporation's basic domestic business.

Brian G. Harrison has been elected president of the corporation's International Division and will be responsible for activities outside of the United States.

Donald F. Smith has been elected president of a New Ventures Division and will be responsible for the corporation's new business activities and acquisitions in related fields.

NLG Adds Members

The Numismatic Literary Guild recently added some distinguished editors and authors to its roster—Mort Reed of Wooster, Ohio, syndicated coin columnist; Philip Walton of Pompano Beach, Florida, coin columnist; Paul R. Whitnah, Chicago, Illinois, active in coin writings since his junior years; William H. McDONALD, Willowdale, Ontario, Canada, editor of the Canadian Paper Money Journal; Daniel C. Parker, Detroit, Michigan, whose coin articles have appeared in numerous publications; Yasha L. Beresiner of London, England, editor of the International Banknote Society Journal.

The guild publishes a bi-monthly newsletter, edited by Lee Martin of Santa Ana, California.

Plans are being formulated for the annual social event of the year which is held in conjunction with the ANA Convention. Ray Byrne of Pittsburgh, Pa. will coordinate the event.

At their annual get-together at the ANA convention last year, James Conlon, the Director of the Bureau of Engraving and Printing and Frank Gasparro, Chief Engraver of the U. S. Mint, were installed as honorary members.

Competition is keen annually for the famed "Clemmy" award. The monster typewriter, glamorized and gilded, is now in the possession of Margo Russell, editor of Coin World, and on display in Sidney, Ohio.

Membership in NLG entitles the holder to carry NLG Press Cards.

For further information about this group, contact the executive director, Maurice M. Gould, Box 1500, Tustin, California 92680.

Current Strikes — Down on the Farm!

Rural scenes and farm products are often the subject of commemorative tokens and medals issued for smaller communities throughout the country. A few are presented here —

The 300th anniversary of the founding of Suffield, Conn., was marked by the striking of a medal by the Robbins Company. The obverse displayed a tobacco drying shed and a field of cigar leaf tobacco to honor the town's dominant industry and to celebrate the first U. S. cigar making factory established there in 1810. The 35mm medal was struck in silver and bronze. Further details available from the 300th Anniversary Committee, Suffield, Conn. 06078.

Tula-Bell, the perky little cow, symbol of the Tulare County Fair, appears on the obverse of their 50th anniversary medal. The 39mm medals are struck in bronze and sell for $1.50, plus stamped envelope from Tulare County Fair, P. O. Box 777, Tulare, Calif. 93274.

Win — Place — Show The Time to Plan is Now

New Orleans, La., — 81st anniversary convention general chairman, James H. Cohen, has announced the appointment of Robert L. Hendershott, as exhibits chairman for the 1972 ANA convention in the Mardi Gras city. Hendershott, a member of the board of directors of Florida United Numismatists and patrons chairman and advisor to the 1967 ANA convention in Miami, will lend his expertise to the Louisiana hosts.

Almost immediately after his appointment, Hendershott issued an invitation to ANA members wishing to exhibit their material at the New Orleans convention. He urges that these interested collectors request a copy of the exhibit rules and to address their requests to him at P. O. Box 929, Clearwater, Florida 33517.

Prospective exhibitors will receive a copy of the board approved, "Invitation to Participate in the Numismatic Exhibit." Dates for the 1972 convention are August 15 through 19, at the Jung Hotel, New Orleans, La.

Questions relating to the convention, other than exhibits, may be sent to James H. Cohen, general chairman, 319 Royal Street, New Orleans, La. 70130.

Assistant general chairman is Robert S. Eddy, III, a New Orleans native. A graduate of Cumberland University and the International Correspondence School, he is an assistant chief engineer with International Lubricant Corp.

Eddy is an ANA member of long standing, the past president of the Crescent City Coin Club, the Orleans Token and Medal Society and the Metairie Coin Club. In addition to his position as assistant general chairman for the 81st anniversary convention, he is also security chairman. Currently he is the commander of the Auxiliary Division of the New Orleans Police Department.

Robert S. Eddy, III

A former Army colonel, Eddy is also a member of the National Advisory Board on Identification of Weapons and Explosives, and past president of the New Orleans chapter of the American Ordnance Association, plus a member of the board of the Louisiana Weapons Museum in Lafayette.

numismatic vignettes

● The Statement of United States Currency and Coin, issued monthly by the Office of the Treasurer of the U. S., recently had a new fine-print footnote added. The amount of coin outstanding and in circulation now "excludes coin sold to collectors at premium prices." Presumably the excluded coin is made up of proof sets, mint sets and the silver Eisenhower dollars.

● There follows an excerpt from a recent offering by Sydney J. Harris, a columnist whose syndicated column appears in over one hundred newspapers across the country. This particular column was headed "Owning up to being ignorant."

"They (his children) know that my 'erudition' comes out of a huge collection of books on my office shelves, and anyone who bothered to dig into the same books could come up with the same quizzes and answers." He went on to enumerate many areas in which he was ignorant of factual information.

This was a fundamental revelation by Mr. Harris to many of his readers. A columnist is not a walking dictionary or encyclopedia; rather he is one who knows how and where to find information and, often, to interpret or relate it to a particular situation or proposition.

● The ultimate dumb question! At the Bureau of Engraving and Printing exhibit at a recent convention, I heard a well-meaning lady ask the man in charge "How do you make error notes?" He told me later that she didn't seem to believe the best reply he knew how to give her.—Glenn S.

A Footnote

A Treasury Miscalculation?

by Robert H. Lloyd, ANA 3024

Since compiling this article (see January issue, p. 17), fifty dollar United States notes were found available in the sources listed below:

At the bourse, ANA Washington convention, August, 1971, nine fifty dollar notes in the hands of various dealers.

Offered for sale, Donlon Catalog, 1971, Part I, page 20, four different notes of this denomination. Same, Part II, pages 84 to 86 four additional notes.

Offered by L. S. Werner, New York, Numismatist, Page 1674, (1971) Friedberg numbers 151, 152, 159, 161, four notes.

A previous offering, which is not available to the author at this writing, listed all seventeen varieties with quoted prices.

Thus in the above cited places, a total of twenty-one notes, with a possible duplication of two or three, leaves at least some eighteen bills currently available.

LATE WORLD COIN NEWS

JAMAICA

*Two New Jamaican Coins
To Be Struck By
The Royal Canadian Mint*

The Bank of Jamaica recently announced the issue of two new commemorative coins to be struck in 1972 in honor of Jamaica's 10th Anniversary of Independence, and both coins are intended for general circulation as well as for collectors.

The two coin issues will be a sterling silver $10 coin and a $20 gold coin. Both are new, high denominations for Jamaica. The 45mm $10 coin will be the largest and highest denomination silver coin—and the $20 gold coin will be the first gold coin—ever issued by this country. The Jamaican gold coin, a $20 denomination piece prepared of .500 fine gold measuring 27mm is believed to be the world's only truly circulating gold coin.

Both coins will be available at face value, plus a $1 handling charge per coin, in specimen uncirculated condition. Face value of the coins is respectively $20 and $10 Jamaican, or $25.00 and $12.50 United States funds. The face value will fluctuate with international exchange rates, it was pointed out. According to Jamaican law, the coins cannot be sold under the nominal (face) value, which will require the fluctuating sale rate. However, orders will be accepted as long as possible at the $25.00/$12.50 figure.

Proof strikes of each of the coins will also be available. Prices have been established, respectively, of $32.00 and $16.00 each, U. S. funds, plus $1.00 handling charge per coin. A deadline date has been established for the sale of the Proof $10 coins of March 31, 1972. Orders for this coin will not be accepted after that date.

It was mentioned that U. S. collectors will probably be prohibited from purchasing the gold coin issue due to current United States Treasury regulations.

John Goodin, spokesman for the Bank of Jamaica, advised that the Royal Canadian Mint will be producing these new coin issues. Mr. Goodin noted that these Jamaican coins will be the first foreign proof coins ever struck by the Royal Canadian Mint. Both coins are to be introduced into circulation very early in 1972, and the Bank of Jamaica will be announcing order taking procedures in the near future.

Goodin advised that special arrangements have been made for placing orders directly with the Jamaica 10th Anniversary Commission c/o Paramount International Coin Corp., Paramount Bldg., Englewood, Ohio 45322, as well as the Royal Canadian Mint, Ottawa and the Bank of Jamaica in Kingston. It was suggested by Mr. Goodin that collectors in the United States direct their inquiries to the Englewood, Ohio address.

CENTURY OLD NOTES

A.T.M., New York—"Parsons" may be an assumed name for all we know; but of one thing rest assured, Mr. P. will find that he paid dear for the whistle, and that nearly all he purchased at the Clay sale were worth but one half the prices at any retail coin shop. (Reply to a correspondent about a competitor's sale.)—Mason's Coin Collector Journal, 1872.

The Numismatist

official publication of the ANA

DISPLAY ADVERTISING RATES

EFFECTIVE APRIL 5, 1968

One-eighth page	$15.00
One-quarter page	25.00
One-half page	47.50
One page	90.00

Color Available - Write for Specifics

The double center pages, inside and back cover pages are available on contract, prices on request. Contract advertisers enjoy the following discounts: 3 months, 2%; 6 mos., 5%; 1 year, 10%.

ADVERTISERS PLEASE NOTE

All correspondence relating to advertising should be addressed to Advertising Dept., The Numismatist, P.O. Box 2366, Colorado Springs, Colo. 80901. Make all remittances payable to American Numismatic Association.

DEADLINE: Copy must be received by the 5th of the month to insure insertion in the following month's issue. All advertising copy must be typed.

MECHANICAL REQUIREMENTS:

Full page, 28½ x 45 picas; half pages may be either vertical or horizontal in format. Single column width, 13½ picas. Halftone engravings should be 110 line screen, mounted. Mats and stereos unacceptable. Position may be requested but cannot be guaranteed.

CIRCULATION: 27,000. No advertising agency commission granted. No discounts other than contract rates.

ADVERTISERS PLEASE NOTE

OTHER REQUIREMENTS: No mail bid sale listings nor ads offering lay-always accepted. No ads accepted from minors. All ads must have numismatic significance. When advertising gold for sale, the following must be inserted in the ad, "All gold coins advertised are legally held."

CONTRACTS: Available for three, six and twelve consecutive month periods, at 2, 5 and 10 percent discounts respectively when contract requirements are fulfilled. In lieu of contract, reduced rates are granted only upon total advance payment for the period desired. Cancelled contracts will be rebilled at the next applicable rate. If new copy has not been received by the 5th of the month, the previous month's ad will be repeated.

REFERENCES: All advertisers are required to submit banking and trade references when advertising for the first time. Advertisers must be, or have one responsible member of their company, a member of ANA.

COPY: Ad copy must be typed on paper of good quality, preferably 8½ x 11", and be easily readable, and double spaced. Ad copy should be on separate sheets and never in the body of a letter of transmittal. Trade names may be used, but, except for the name of corporations, the name of the responsible person of the firm must also appear unless such person is known to the advertising manager in which case the name will be kept on file.

There will be an extra charge for heavy composition.

ILLUSTRATIONS: All cuts to be provided by the advertiser. When absolutely necessary engravings can be made from furnished photographs and advertiser will be billed at national rates.

* * *

The advertising manager has on file the names and addresses of all advertisers. Any complaints or requests for information regarding advertisers should be referred to the advertising manager. The right to edit copy, to require payment in advance, and to decline any advertisement is specifically reserved.

APPRAISALS CONSULTATIONS

SOUND ADVICE IS WORTH THE PRICE

You CAN buy experience! Ours. Now, in our 43rd year as professional numismatists, we are helping more and more collectors and dealers, too, with their numismatic problems.

Be it buying or selling, estate planning or taxes, or just plain sound advice, the problems are coming to the "doctor," the professional's professional.

It takes a long time to chalk up 43 years of experience. We have it and you can reap the benefits. It may well be your best numismatic investment.

COINS FOR INVESTMENT

NOT OLD!

NOT SILVER!

NOT GOLD!

Believe It or Not!

We are recommending:

The modern clad issue of U.S. Coins.

Now 15 coins in each dime and quarter clad series.
Very few clad coins were held back from circulation.
Some of the BU clad coins will prove to be surprisingly scarce.
Each series now includes 4 scarce Proof only issues.

There is only one way to obtain the very scarce "S" clad dimes and quarters and that is to break up the Proof sets. Proof sets minted each year: 1968-S only 3,041,509; 1969-S only 2,934,631; 1970-S only 2,632,810; 1971-S approx. 3,000,000.

It is estimated at this time that less than 10% of the proof sets have been broken to obtain single coins for collectors. This 10% figure would be less than 300,000 of each date available for collectors and investors.

For a comparison of mintages and value, listed are some recognized by key coins in the 10¢, 25¢, 50¢ series:

Date	Mintage	G-VG	BU
1916-D 10¢	264,000	$100.00	$675.00 per coin
1932-D 25¢	436,800	35.00	225.00 per coin
1932-S 25¢	408,300	35.00	95.00 per coin
1921 50¢	246,000	30.00	750.00 per coin
1921-D 50¢	208,300	50.00	975.00 per coin
1938-D 50¢	491,600	22.00	175.00 per coin

Complete Clad Dime Set

Housed in attractive holder: Set includes 4 scarce proof only issues. 1968-S, 1969-S, 1970-S, 1971-S. Other Unc. coins are: 1965, 1966, 1967, 1968, 1968-D, 1969, 1969-D, 1970, 1970-D, 1971, 1971-D. Complete set of 15 coins in holder.

FRIENDS, ROMANS, COLLECTORS SELL ME YOUR COINS!

In conjunction with the expansion of our retail sales division, we are instituting a separate subsidiary which will be wholly devoted to making purchases for our various divisions.

Due to the enormous need generated by our full volume picture, we are placed in the position of having to buy at a constantly escalating rate. We pay so much more because we sell so much more! We can use a wide and varied assortment of numismatic items that most other dealers just don't have the facilities to handle. We want more than just a few choice items in your collection, we want and need everything, whether it is AG or PROOF, whether OBSOLETE or MODERN. If it's collectable, we want it! Complete collections any series, paper money and foreign coinage WANTED. Obviously it is impossible for us to list what we want, because we want almost everything and are willing to pay for it.

To those of you whose holdings are considerable, the above as well as the following should be of prime importance. As a matter of policy we maintain a cash position far and above any of our immediate or long range needs. Therefore we are in a position to handle your collection or accumulation immediately. It's always nice to know when you deal with the Old Roman Inc., you are dealing with principles only.

We now invite you to ship your coins directly to us for IMMEDIATE appraisal and disposition in the form of an airmail check to you which you may either accept or decline. Either ship your coins or write for our most generous offer.

If for any reason we can't come to terms, as always we pay return postage. If it's expeditious or advantageous to either of us, we will of course travel to negotiate the purchase and transfer of your holdings.

All matters are held in the strictest confidence.

AN EXTRAORDINARY MONUMENT TO THE HISTORY OF SCIENCE

THE MEDALLIC TREASURY OF SCIENCE HISTORY

A privately struck, limited first edition medalllic tribute commemorating the greatest men and events in the history of science—culminating during the Diamond Anniversary year of the Nobel Awards. Available only by advance reservation.

- 75 original high relief fine art commemorative medals
- Privately struck in limited editions of Gold-over-Gold; Gold-over-Fine Silver; All Fine Silver; and Solid Bronze
- Created by internationally-famed medalllic sculptors
- Hallmarked and edge-numbered with your own individual subscription number
- 100% Price Protected
- Subjects carefully selected by distinguished science historians

- Authenticated by renowned science history institutions the world over
- Struck by America's leading minter of high relief fine art medals
- Culminating in a magnificent, over-size, 2½-inch medal commemorating the Diamond Anniversary year of the distinguished Nobel Awards
- Historically significant fine art medal collection destined to become a family heirloom

The Medical Heritage Society, respected in the fields of history and medicine for its outstanding commemorative medalllic art, now announces creation of a beautiful series of limited, fine art medals commemorating the outstanding achievements in the history of science.

The Medalllic Treasury of Science History. This unique series is being sculpted as a lasting tribute to the greatest men and events in science: the 75 "giants" of science will be struck in your choice of precious metals for this limited, first edition series of fine art medals.

The meticulous process of selection covered the full span of science history... men from all disciplines: Archimedes, Descartes, Linnaeus, Lavoisier, Darwin, Einstein, Newton... the final selections based on those men and events most responsible for basic changes in scientific thinking, thus pivotal points in science history.

Cambridge University.

STILLMAN DRAKE, A.B., L.L.D., Professor of History, Institute for the History and Philosophy of Science and Technology, University of Toronto.

DEREK DE Solla PRICE, Ph.D., Professor of History, Department of the History of Science, Yale University.

Internationally known medalllic sculptors. Famed medalllic sculptors have been enlisted to give their unique interpretations to this 75-medal collection. Typical is chief sculptor Barry Stanton, designer of the official U.N. Silver Anniversary Medal. Medals are recognized as a beautiful medium for artistic expression, as will be exemplified in this fine art series.

Strictly limited number of sets... only 100 may own the finest of the four separate editions. To assure rarity and collector appeal, only 100 sets will be struck in 24K Gold over 14K Gold Fill... only 750 in Gold over .999 Fine Silver... just 1,500 in .999 Fine Silver (Sterling is .925 pure)... and 3,000 Solid Bronze sets.

You, too, will want to own this magnificent series. The heirloom characteristics of original fine art sculpture in enduring medallic form, the intrinsic value of precious metal, the extremely limited availability, as well as its unique educational value, will make this series a treasured collector's item and enhance its long-term potential for value appreciation. The four separate editions, each with a different measure of value, provides you the perfect opportunity to own a set that will fulfill your needs and interests.

Distinguished International Selection Committee.

AARON J. IHDE, Ph.D., Selection Committee Chairman, Professor of Chemistry and the History of Science, University of Wisconsin.
ALISTAIR C. CROMBIE, Ph.D., Senior Lecturer in the History of Science, Oxford University.

CHAUNCEY D. LEAKE, Ph.D., Professor of Pharmacology, University of California, Medical School.

MICHAEL A. HOSKIN, Ph.D., Lecturer in the History of Science,

Special Bonus Bausch & Lomb Magnifier. Also included—if your application is mailed by midnight, March 10, 1972—will be a Bausch and Lomb illuminated desk top magnifier to study the magnificent detail of your medals plus many other valuable uses.

Please enter my subscription for one complete hallmarked set of The Medallic Treasury of Science History consisting of 75 high relief fine art medals to be issued at the rate of two per month beginning in April, 1972. The first 74 medals will be 39mm in diameter; the final medal, a full 2 1/4" in diameter. I understand that I may examine my first two medals for 10 days—and, if I am not thoroughly satisfied, I may at that time cancel my subscription and return the medals for full refund.

I understand that future medals will be struck expressly for my account, at the rate of two medals per month, and I agree to pay for them promptly upon being invoiced on a monthly prepayment basis. After I have received the first six medals, I will also receive, at no additional cost, a deluxe chest to protect my medals. In addition, I will also receive a complimentary subscription to Aesculapius magazine.

All payments must be in U.S. Funds. I understand my remittance will be returned to me if my subscription is not accepted. (Illinois residents please add 5% sales tax.)

High Relief medals, issued two per month. The medals, struck in dramatic High Relief, will be issued at the rate of two per month. The first 74 medals will each be 39mm. in diameter (slightly larger and thicker than a silver dollar); the final tribute will be an over-size 2 1/4" medal... the same size as the classic Nobel Medal. Each will be edge-numbered with your individual subscription number (excepting bronze) and hallmarked to assure authenticity. They will be struck by the Medallic Art Company of New York, America's leading minter of high relief fine medallic art.

Included with your subscription. Your subscription will include historical literature for each event commemorated; a deluxe wood chest to organize, display and protect your collection, plus a complimentary subscription to Aesculapius, a quarterly journal of the history of medicine and of the sciences.

10-Day examination privilege. Be sure to mail your application promptly with your initial prepayment in order to assure your participation. Your first two medals will be mailed to you in April, 1972. When yours arrive, examine them in your home for 10 days. If you don't agree that this medallic series is all we promised, simply return them for a full refund. If you have any questions, please feel free to phone—(312) 641-5540.

I would like my set to be struck in the metal checked below—and I enclose my check or money order for the first two medals:

- ☐ 24-Karat Gold electroplate over 14-Karat Gold-Fill @ $38 per medal (individually edge-numbered). I am enclosing $76.00*
- ☐ 24-Karat Gold electroplate over .999 Fine Silver @ $23.50 per medal (individually edge-numbered). I am enclosing $47.00*
- ☐ .999 Fine Silver @ $14.00 per medal (individually edge-numbered). I am enclosing $28.00*
- ☐ Solid Bronze @ $5.50 per medal. I am enclosing $11.00* *Or charge to:

Retard Tarnish From These 3 Major Sources

Handling, even with greatest care, leaves silver-blackening acids on coin and medal surfaces. Atmospheric impurities can quickly darken seemingly well-protected pieces.

Storage containers that seem "safe"—often contain tarnish-producing elements.

Double View Drawers and Cabinets combine the preservation techniques employed universally in Museums with the traditional means of storing valuable numismatic material . . . adding the completely new ingredient of NO-TOUCH TOTAL VISUAL ENJOYMENT of Obverse and Reverse designs.

America's Fastest Growing Coin Company
wants to buy from you:

RARE COINS,
COLLECTIONS, ESTATES,
ACCUMULATIONS,

or any numismatic material from $100 to $100,000.

In conjunction with the fantastic growth of our national retail sales, we are placed in a position of having to buy at a constantly escalating rate. Our extremely large volume of 100% retail sales makes it possible for us to pay you absolute top dollar for your numismatic material. We have customers for your coins and will pay more to get them.

WHAT WE WANT TO BUY

We need a wide and varied assortment of numismatic items that most dealers just don't have the facilities to handle. We are not interested in "Cherry Picking" your collection, in other words we will not buy only the choice material from your collection and leave you holding the bag with what's left. We want and need everything, whether AG or proof, modern or obsolete. In short, if it's been worth your effort to save, we want it.

ADVANTAGES OF SELLING TO US

(1) You get far more for your entire collection when you sell to Riverside Coin Company. Why? We have the best possible location for retail sales; we are centrally located in heavy tourist traffic and only a stone's throw from Hemisfair Plaza, the still active site of World's Fair 1968. This means we pay more for the insignificant items that dealers cannot afford to advertise as we sell them direct to our tourist clientele. We sell the better material to eager collectors through national advertising.

(2) You get immediate cash payment in strict confidence.

(3) You get the full value from your collection when selling to Riverside. Many collectors sell unknowingly to wholesale dealers. We are living proof of this as we spend hundreds of thousands annually with these wholesale dealers. You will eliminate him and get 100% for yourself by selling to Riverside.

(4) You get a pleasant and enjoyable transaction. You'll like the Riverside way of doing business.

HOW TO SELL TO US

Selling to us is as easy as A-B-C. Thousands of collectors and dealers have done it. Here's all you do: Package your coins securely and mail them to us either insured or registered mail. Our offer in the form of a check goes out to you airmail the same day your shipment is received. Your coins are then held intact for 10 days while you consider our offer. If for some reason you do not accept our offer, your coins will be immediately returned to you postpaid.

MOST PAMPERED CUSTOMERS

They are finicky. They are stubbornly bent on getting their money's worth. They don't like excuses and won't put up with shoddy business methods. They are hard to please. And we love them and pamper them because it is thanks to their continued trust and approval that I-G-C has achieved its position of unchallenged leadership in the field of gold coins.

If YOU are hard to please and your name is not already in our files, try us with an order. Or, if you are disposing of gold, ask us for a bid. In either event, we think you will discover what so many others have found to be true:

1961D	1965	1969D	1971S
1962P	1966	1969S

LAST CHANCE:

This is the last time that we will offer these 27 B.U. rolls at the price of 22.50 Del. anywhere in the Continental U. S. A.

With the addition of the 1972 P-D-S rolls, our new price will be 27.50. We advise you to act now.

Also available, custom holders for single L. M. Cent sets at 12.50 per 50 holders.

The above enlargement of a 1968 S cent variety, was discovered during 1968 and has never received much fanfare.

Because of it we stocked a large number of mint sewn 1968 S cent bags, which we have now decided to sell at 62.50 per bag express charges collect. Limit 3 bags per order. Oh yes in case you're interested we will sell the pictured variety cent at 5.00.

A UNIQUE OPPORTUNITY

At this time we highly recommend the very conservative investment of these scarce rolls of semi-key Washington Quarters. Please read over the facts. Then you will agree this is an excellent opportunity. Many people lose money in coin investments for the following reasons:

- A. They purchase coins from people who have given them bad advice. Remember, any dealer or broker can recommend a roll or proof set for investment, but only a very few have the experience and foresight necessary for good solid recommendations.
- B. Many people hesitate to make an investment until the item has already moved up in price 25-50% or more. Then people want to jump on the bandwagon and start buying. This is actually the time you should be selling, not buying. Many people lose money in coins because of this reason.
- C. Another big reason for losses in the coin industry is too many people believe everything they read. A coin has to have a reason to go up in price. It's all a question of supply and demand. We can point out many investments which probably you yourself lost money on in the past year. Examples of this would be 1971S Nickels Proof, 1970 No S Proof Sets, 1970S Halves, and Athiest Cents. Sure you make money if you bought in at the ground floor. But what about the guy who bought in at the top? Chances are he will be lucky to get back his money if he waits long enough.

Remember one important factor in making an investment in coins: A coin must be generally scarce (as low in mintage) to have a great potential to move up in price.

We wish to point out the following facts on these scarce silver coins:

1. Compare the mintages to any other popular U.S. Coin to the price. Example: 1939S Quarters to 1950D Nickels — Mintage identical — Price almost 10 to 1.
2. In 1965 the U.S. government started making clad coins for circulation. Now it's difficult to find a silver coin in circulation — let alone a rare, low mintage silver coin.
3. These are now selling at the ground floor prices. We highly recommend these for a long term investment. We are not telling you these will double in price this year, but we are telling you they must make a tremendous increase in the next 5 years. Don't be left out — Buy a roll set of these today!

Average-Circulated (no culls — Good to Fine condition) Rolls of Washington Quarters

Date	Mintage	Approx. price per coin	Roll Price

1946S	4.6	.45 each	$18.00
1947S	5.1	.37½ each	$15.00
			Lot Price — $133.00

We are offering a special — good 10 days only or until our supply lasts:

1 Roll each at only $124.50 10 Rolls each at only $1200.00

Don't hesitate — Order your roll set today — Don't wait until the price doubles or triples to buy — Then you can be selling and will be far ahead.

CHOICE B. U. ROLLS AT DISCOUNT PRICES

CENTS

There are many sleepers throughout this series. Compare today's prices with the 1964 prices and you will see an amazing difference. You can steal these scarce rolls at an average of 20% of the 1964 price. This means when we get another big coin boom these should really move up in price. We do recommend B.U. rolls of Lincoln for a long term investment.

NICKELS

This series is by far the most underpriced of all the B.U. rolls. Many sleepers are contained throughout the entire series. Many of these rolls are selling for only a fraction of the 1964 price. Watch these move when the market gets hot again this fall. We highly recommend the 1948S which sold for $140.00 in 1964 which can be

DIMES

This is another series which has taken many sharp drops in the past couple of years. Buy the rolls we recommend for a good long term buy. Remember, these are all silver coins and have much more room to move in price than the quarters and halves.

FINE QUALITY AUCTION SALES

Considering the sale of your coin collection? Consider the advantages that a combined public and mail bid auction by the American Auction Association, Inc. offers you:

EXPERT CATALOGUING by James F. Ruddy, Q. David Bowers, and the other professional numismatists on the staff of Bowers and Ruddy Galleries, Inc. You get the experience of our having handled millions of dollars' worth of choice United States and world coins — including many of the finest collections sold in America and Europe in recent decades.

A BEAUTIFUL CATALOGUE will highlight your collection. Important pieces will be illustrated with detailed photographs. The illustrations, layout, typography, and descriptions of the coins will make the catalogue featuring your collection a standard reference for years to come. Your collection will be offered to its best advantage.

EXCELLENT RESULTS will be yours with an American Auction Association, Inc. auction sale. Public attendance plus spirited mail bidding from our mailing list of the most active buyers in numismatics will combine to produce the best results available in the auction market today.

PLUS THESE OTHER ADVANTAGES: Competitive commission rates. Insured protection for your collection in secure bank vaults. Complete research facilities for die varieties, rarity ratings, etc. — to assure you of a better price for your coins. Unquestioned financial and professional reputation. Early sale dates now available.

THE FIRST STEP: Considering the sale of your collection? Write or telephone (you may call collect) James F. Ruddy of our staff today and he will discuss our convenient arrangements with you. An American Auction Association, Inc. combined public and mail bid auction sale is the ideal way to sell your collection.

Contact us now and your coins can appear as part of our next sale — scheduled for early 1972. Already consigned to the sale: A group of several dozen coins, formerly the property of Gen. M. S. Newton, used to illustrate A Guide Book of United States Coins.

GREAT SCOTT!!!

J. A. SCOTT & CO., INC., is the talk of the industry!!!

Whether you call yourself a numismatic authority or just a plain coin collector, you must read the offers on this page... IF YOU READ NO OTHER.

In keeping with its renowned liberal policy of doing business, J. A. SCOTT is prepared to offer immediate cash payments on all collections!!!

You may send your coins or write with a complete list, and —

IF THE COLLECTION WARRANTS A TRIP, A REPRESENTATIVE OF
J. A. SCOTT WILL TRAVEL DIRECTLY TO YOUR HOME AT YOUR CONVENIENCE.

It is a well-known fact to numismatists all over the nation that the market value of coins continues to rise... in spite of the dangerous fluctuations in other portions of our economy.

While the stock market follows a perilous trail of peaks and valleys, the coin market has remained just where we always said it would... rising and firm!

To permit you to take advantage of today's outstanding coin bargains — the J. A. Scott Company lists the following offers:

AN INTERESTING SELECTION OF ENGLISH GOLD AND RELATED PIECES.

Five Guineas 1699, Elephant and Castle under bust, in extremely fine condition. The rarest date of the William III series, and especially so in such choice condition. Catalogues at $2500.00 1575.00

Pattern one third guinea 1798 in silver, VF/EF with a pin size indent on the obverse 75.00

A pair of uniface trial pieces for the reverse of the 1821 sovereign, in lead. One shows a partially completed die, the other the finished die. EF 225.00

Pattern shilling of 1825, struck in BARTON'S METAL. (Barton's metal is composed of a layer of gold bonded on both sides of a layer of copper, similar to the U.S. clad coinage.) ESC 1265 and of excessive rarity with only 2-4 pieces known. This piece is a brilliant frosted proof with light hairlines, and the upper obverse does not have the gold layer from 12:00 to 2:00 o'clock. Undoubtedly this was done intentionally to demonstrate the inner core of copper 650.00

Half sovereign 1839, the rare proof only issue, a brilliant frosted proof with a few light surface marks 325.00

Sovereign 1871, St. George reverse. A plain edge brilliant frosted proof NFDC, and very rare. Last offered by Seaby of London in July at $500.00 in the same condition 425.00

Gold proof set of 1887, consisting of the five, two, one, and half pound pieces. A superb set, virtually FDC, as only the five pounds has a few faint hairlines, on the left of the bust. 1475.00

India gold mohur of 1862, a superb brilliant frosted ORIGINAL proof FDC, and extremely rare as such. At least 95% of all Indian proofs are restrikes, and this is the first original gold proof we have been able to obtain 275.00

"SUNKEN TREASURE"

"GOLD LOUIS D'ors of Le CHAMEAU"

Gold Coins of Colonial North America were recovered from the French Treasure Ship — Le CHAMEAU, off the coast of Canada. This ship which was found lying in a depth of about 75 feet of icy cold water, went down on 26 August 1725 off Port Nova Island, Kelpy Cove, Nova Scotia, Canada with what appears to be the entire issue of Louis D'ors of 1723 to 1725 which were meant for circulation in French Colonies.

In 1723 Louis XV was 13 years old and was officially crowned King of France and it is likely that this type of Gold Louis may have been struck in honor of this event. This coin besides being a distinctive type (FR-205) is now considered to be a Gold Coin of the French Colonies in America.

A paperbound book is available "Canada Treasure Hunt" which describes the search for Le CHAMEAU and its treasure, in detail, and was sold by Parke-Bernet Galleries in conjunction with their Le CHAMEAU Sale on December 10 and 11, 1971. We can furnish this book with the sale of each coin purchased from the following list. In our opinion the following "Treasure" Coins from the Parke-Bernet Auction represents much of the better grade coins from that sale, since most of the coins sold were purchased by European dealers. At this time we think that there are less than 50 of these coins remaining for sale to U. S. collectors who are interested in obtaining "Colonial Gold Coins of North America."

| LOT #76: 1723 K — A very nice strike. There are no adjustment marks on this coin and there is no verdigris, a choice EXTREMELY FINE + | 950.00 |
| LOT #83: 1723 K — Another nice strike with no adjustment marks, there is the slightest porosity of planchet and some signs of verdigris adhering to several letters, otherwise EXTRA FINE | 800.00 |
| LOT #99: 1723 M — The legend is sharply struck but the bust is weaker. There are no adjustment marks and no verdigris, but there are several planchet lines (rough planchet annealing) made prior to the strike. We therefore call the coin a good VERY FINE + | 600.00 |
| LOT #134: 1724 B — The sharpest strike, lustrous appearance; no adjustment marks, no verdigris, no porosity and coin is quite nicely centered. One of the Outstanding coins really a CHOICE, EXTRA FINE +. (NOTE: This coin was struck at ROUEN, only 2 were made in 1723 and 3 made in 1724, a total of 5 coins from this mint.) Because of the condition and rarity this is a desirable coin | 1250.00 |
| LOT #244: 1724 H — A sharp strike, lustrous appearance and with no adjustment marks, no verdigris. Coin is just the slightest off-center and there is some porosity of planchet on rev. EXT. FINE + | 750.00 |
| LOT #273: 1724 H — This is the only coin with true sparkling mint luster over the entire coin. Reverse is very sharp but the Obverse is not as sharp. Some few light adjustment marks over the bust and there is some porosity of the planchet in the left field. There is some verdigris clinging to several of the letters. Coin is just short of nice EXT. FINE | 700.00 |
| LOT #413: 1724 K — A full strike, except that the crown on the left side is weakly struck. A slight porosity of planchet on the Obverse in the field, some verdigris clinging to several letters and we grade the coin a Choice EXTRA FINE | 800.00 |
| LOT #676: 1725 H — A sharply struck coin. NO adjustment marks, but there is some porosity of the planchet and some verdigris adhering to some of the letters and the coin is a nice EXTRA FINE | 800.00 |
| LOT #401: 1724 K — Just the barest softness away from a sharp strike. No adjustment marks, well centered and a small amount of verdigris on coin, and we grade this coin a full Extremely Fine and nice | 850.00 |

(WE WISH to point out that all the coins have a slight MATTE appearance caused by the action of the salt water on the coins during the approximately 250 years that the coins were submerged in the water. LOT #273 is the only coin which does not have the MATTE appearance.)

COLONIAL PAPER MONEY

We have a fine selection of Colonial Paper money including numerous scarce and rare notes of Penna., Delaware, N. J. and Md. There are several notes printed by Franklin. We would be glad to send you a list.

REVOLUTIONARY WAR MILITARY PAYMENT NOTES

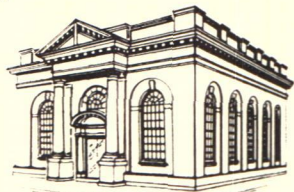

Genuine payment note issued in 1782 to a soldier for military service in the Revolutionary War. There was no hard money to pay the soldiers, so these interest bearing notes were issued, with interest payments in subsequent years recorded on the back, and finally cancelled when redeemed. We have purchased a hoard of these fascinating valuable conversation pieces. Each $15.00

MONUMENTAL SECOND EDITION

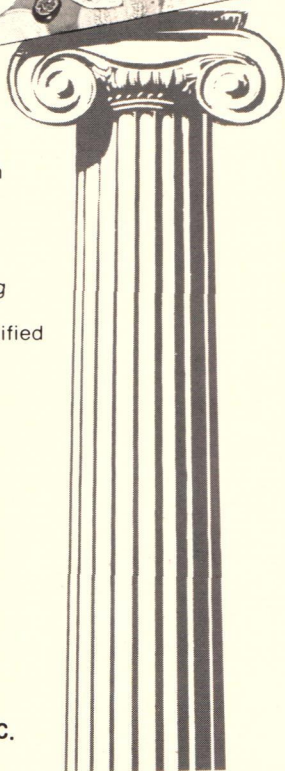

Seldom has a volume been so eagerly awaited as the second edition of Coins of the World 1750-1850. Continuing the consummate scholarship displayed in the original edition, William D. Craig brings further meaning and order to largely unexplored areas of the numismatic world. The second edition expands, revises, augments. Reorganization on a grand scale and numerous additions have necessitated increasing the book size to an impressive 7-3/4 x 10-1/4 inches. Coins are chronologically listed by country and identified by catalog number, date, metal and denomination. Condition grades have been added. Current retail values are shown. 448 pages. Profusely illustrated. Easily one of the greatest values on the market!

No. 9363 $10.00

(Illustration less than actual size)

FOR THE DISCRETE COLLECTOR who wants the ultimate "a collection in itself." Not a coin or medal, but a pure mint silver commemorative, struck as a memorial to the end of our hard money system in the United States. Also, five and ten troy ounce silver ingots may be obtained for investment purposes. We feel as good an investment as stocks and bonds.

Act now, send your check for the Silver Slug $35.00, the five ounce Silver Ingot $14.00 and the ten ounce size $27.50 to LIMIT: Only ONE SET per subscriber.

Complement your EISENHOWER SILVER DOLLAR by acquiring the six remarkable replicas, in precious metal, of actual Presidential Commemorative Stamps (as shown) in Fine .999 silver. The first in this initial series being that of the Dwight D. Eisenhower 6c stamp itself. These six Commemorative Stamps, serial numbered, are destined to become one of those rare works on which connoisseurs will place exceptional value.

To accentuate the dramatic relief of this exceptional series, each will be individually hand finished in antique tones by craftsmen at the Lombardo Mint, pioneers in this most delicate art.

Complete and mail the simple Order Form below and you will receive your first commemorative EISENHOWER stamp in pure silver, plus a FREE simulated leather presentation wallet to protect your SILVER EISENHOWER DOLLAR and your commemorative silver Stamps. The remaining five will be shipped to you on a monthly prepayment basis.

TO: THE LOMBARDO MINT, P.O. Box 525, Derby Line, VT 05830

Please send me THE EISENHOWER COMMEMORATIVE STAMP reproduced in Fine .999 Silver or Bronze (as indicated in check box below) and reserve the other five in this special series in my name for monthly shipment later. I enclose cheque/money order for my first commemorative stamp.

A GREAT OPPORTUNITY to increase your Numismatic Knowledge and Pleasure by adding to your library, a High Quality, Well Illustrated and Informative Numismatic Book. Such a Book is "EARLY HALF DOLLAR DIE VARIETIES 1794-1836" 1970 Revised Edition, by Al C. Overton.

Following are just a few of the many comments received, relating to this work.

"I am the proud owner of your wonderful book. I have found it to be one of the best volumes on any series of coins." S.S.E. Florida

"The intense research that went into this very exacting subject, is immediately obvious. This is truly a Masterpiece of Numismatic Art." M.J.K. Calif.

"I am extremely pleased with this Revised Edition. It is truly a first rate piece of work. The Photographs will be helpful to all. Your Rarity Ratings are accurate and useful." K.B. Wis.

"Your new book (the bible) is excellent. LCDR D.R.F." Maryland

"Thank you for the New Half Dollar book, you did a terrific job and I believe collectors will appreciate it." L.M. N.Y.C.

"This work will not need revision for many many years if ever. The photos are excellent and the descriptions accurate. In short Congratulations." J.C. Calif.

Less than 1200 persons in the entire world can own this book and most of them have already purchased their copy.

HASTY SELLING VS. QUICK BORROWING

Selling your collection can be profitable if you have enough time to find the best prices. But a collection sold quickly is seldom sold profitably.

In any emergency, borrow the money you need at Edelman's. Use your collection as collateral and still retain complete ownership.

At Edelman's, you can obtain quick confidential loans for any amount up to 80% of the value of your properties — from $50 to $50,000 and more. Take as long as 30 months to pay with a repayment plan tailored to your specific needs. Your collection will be safely protected in Edelman's air-conditioned vaults until you reclaim it. HOLED COINS

Expertly filled. Solder lumps, loops and rings removed. Scratches and digs smoothed down. Most of the damaged detail re-engraved. Only close examination will detect repair. Restores appearance and value. Makes a worthless coin suitable for collection or type set. Copper and silver coins cleaned and toned. Send coins for estimate as every damage is different. It's A Wonderful World Especially as seen through the eyes of the numismatist. The collector truly appreciates the fact that in the fast-moving world of today, the only thing that remains constant is change.

Keeping knowledgeable collectors knowledgeable is our job. We do it through continually updating the authoritative references you know as the "Red Book," "Blue Book," "Current Coins of the World" and others. All from the world of Whitman . . . a wonderful way for you to keep pace.
